| When the Student Registers | When the Student's Transportation Starts |
|--|--|
| Register before July 1st | Transportation usually starts on the student's first day of school. |
| Register after July 1st | Transportation may not start on the student's first day of school. Parents/guardians should plan to transport their child to and from school until transportation starts. |
| Returning students | If a student's address is the same as last school year, transportation should start date on the student's first day of school. If student's address has changed since last school year, transportation may not start on the student's first day of school. Communicate any address changes to your school as soon as possible because your child may need to be assigned to a different bus stop. |

Additional Information

Students are generally assigned to centralized bus stops, which are in or near the student's town, often in a public place, and most likely, not within walking distance from the student's home. Families are notified of their child's specific transportation information, including:

- the start date
- bus stop location
- drop-off/pick-up times
- if the school participates in after-school transportation
