

WHO are YOU voting for?

State of Connecticut
Unofficial Ballot

Congressional District
Senatorial District
Assembly District
Local District

CONCERNS ↓	POLICIES →
My Parents	<input type="radio"/> 1	Their healthcare. Their housing.
My Children	<input type="radio"/> 1	Their education. Their safety. Their planet.
My Friends	<input type="radio"/> 1	Immigration. Job opportunities + security.
My Neighbors	<input type="radio"/> 1	Local businesses. Public transportation.
My Community	<input type="radio"/> 1	Police + fire departments. Parks + beaches.
Myself	<input type="radio"/> 1	My vote is my voice.
What matters to YOU?	<input type="radio"/> 1

For everything you need to know to vote and get involved, visit portal.ct.gov/sots or call 860.509.6200 or scan this code:

Stephanie Thomas, Secretary of the State

Follow us on Facebook, Instagram + Twitter:
@CTSOTS | @ctsots | @CTSotS

Produced by the Office of the Connecticut
Secretary of the State. For a copy of this in English or Spanish, visit Civics101.ct.gov

Elected officials impact your life every day. Your VOTE is your VOICE!

Why Should You Care About Municipal Elections?

Here are the some of the issues local officials and boards deal with:

- › Neighborhood concerns such as education, traffic and noise
- › Road and sidewalk repair, street sweeping and beach cleaning
- › Setting property tax rates
- › Transportation and programs for senior citizens and persons with disabilities
- › Maintenance, cleaning and monitoring of public parks, playgrounds and sports fields
- › Buying equipment and training for police and fire departments

November 7th 2023

Municipal (Town and City) Elections

Positions which may be up for election, depending on your location, in odd-numbered years:

Mayor or First Selectman
Town/City Council, Aldermen or Selectmen
Town Clerk
Constables
Board of Finance
Board of Education
Board of Assessment Appeals
Planning + Zoning Board

Why Should You Care About State and Federal Elections?

State officials work on issues such as:

- › Gun violence prevention
- › Benefits to veterans
- › Elections and ballot access
- › Affordable health care and prescription drug pricing
- › Public transportation

Federal officials work on broad issues such as:

- › Foreign policy, national defense and declaring war
- › Medicare and social security
- › Funding given to each state for infrastructure, public education and Medicaid

November 5th 2024

State (CT) and Federal (National) Elections

Number of positions that may be up for election in even-numbered years:

2-Year Terms

151 State Representatives
36 State Senators
5 U.S. Representatives

4-Year Terms

U.S. President

6-Year Terms

2 U.S. Senators

The vote is precious. It is the most powerful non-violent tool we have in a democratic society, and we must use it. — John Lewis, Congressman + Civil Rights Activist

Online Resources

To receive important election updates text VOTE to 860.321.4221

Register to vote

Volunteer as a poll worker

Find your polling place

Run for office

