TO ALL TOWN CLERKS:

December 28, 2013

We are enclosing five forms of Notice in connection with the election of Town Committee members under the State Primary Law.

Two of these are the forms of Notice of Party-Endorsed Candidates which the municipal clerk is required to publish under Conn. Gen. Stat. §9-395. The Secretary of the State is required to prescribe the form of such notice, and one copy of each of our prescribed forms for Town Committee At-Large (ED-611) and Town Committee from Political Subdivisions (ED-611a) is enclosed.

We have also enclosed Failure to Endorse forms (ED-613 and ED-613a) which the municipal clerk must publish when no endorsements are made. In addition to the normal failure to endorse situation, this will also occur in those towns whose parties have adopted the direct primary method of election.

The fifth form of notice is the Notice of Primary (ED-612) which the municipal clerk must publish under §9-435. Although we are not required to prescribe this form, we have prepared a suggested form for your convenience. This form also incorporates the notice which the registrar of voters must give to you under said §9-435.

In order to reduce the likelihood of inadvertent failures-to-endorse, you may wish to remind the party officials in your town that (a) all party endorsements may be made only between January 7 and January 14, 2014, and (b) endorsements must be certified to you by 4:00 p.m. of January 15, 2014. If an endorsement is not made between these dates, this does not produce a "vacancy" which may be filled by a later endorsement under party rules. (The only vacancies in endorsement which may be so filled are those resulting from withdrawal or death of a candidate originally endorsed at the proper time.) Moreover, the failure to file a timely certification nullifies an otherwise timely endorsement.

You may also wish to remind the town chairmen that §9-390 requires the town chairman or his designee to give newspaper notice of date, time, location and purpose of a caucus at least five full days prior to the caucus, unless party rules require earlier notice.

Please call us at (860) 509-6100 whenever this office can be of service to you.

Sincerely,

DENISE MERRILL
Secretary of the State
