The document is a page from a Connecticut official ballot for the November 8, 2016, State Election. It contains a table with columns for different offices and parties, listing candidates for each position. The table includes sections for Presidential Electors, United States Senator, Representative in Congress, State Senator, State Representative, Registrar of Voters, and Write-In Votes. Each row represents a political party, with options from left to right for each position. The Democratic Party, for example, lists Clinton and Kaine for President, Richard Blumenthal for Senate, Joe Courtney for Congress, Catherine A. Osten for State Senate, and Thomas Currier for State Representative. The Republican Party lists Trump and Pence for President, Dan Carter for Senate, Daria Novak for Congress, Barbara Richardson Crouch for State Senate, and Tim Ackert for State Representative. The table also includes Libertarian, Green, Working Families, and Independent parties, with corresponding candidates listed for each office. The page includes a reminder to read the instructions on the reverse side of the ballot.
