

RWB Schools 2021 Resources

State & Local Government Resources: All Levels (or unspecified)

1. ICivics: *All age ranges
 - a. iCivics | Free Lesson Plans and Games for Learning Civics
 - b. Teachers
 - i. ICivics is an online resource for both teachers and students. They work to inspire life-long civic engagement by providing high-quality and engaging civics resources. In addition, the site has lesson plan examples, interactive games, and educational resources.
2. Local Connecticut Resource List for Teaching Civics and Government:
 - a. Local Connecticut Resource List for Teaching Civics and Government
 - i. Resource guide for elementary and secondary teachers to assist them in planning lessons to help their students better understand and a genuine interest in citizenship and government.
3. Local Government and Society information
 - a. Britannica-CT
 - i. Britannica provides general insight on Government and Society in CT along with its history. The website is a great starting point for educators who need an idea as to how to navigate through how the government process works and additional resources that provide further explanation.
4. Connecticut Humanities' ConnecticutHistory.Org
 - a. Politics and Government | Connecticut History | a CTHumanities Project
 - i. Connecticut Humanities' online historical database provides continuously updated content on local, state, and national historical events and reflections that educators can utilize in their lesson plans and instruction. In addition, the Politics and Government database contains a variety of resources and a selection of materials to provide students and guide the curriculum.
5. CT-N
 - a. CT-N home page
 - i. The Connecticut Network's mission is to provide Connecticut's citizens with access to unbiased information about state government deliberations and public policy events. Through noncommercial television coverage and other relevant technologies, they help educate the public and advance the public's understanding of the political process and public policy development. Connecticut Network is the citizen's source for complete and balanced television and webcast coverage of the Connecticut state government and public policy.
 - ii. Use CT-N footage as part of video series - state government in action