Subject: Sandy Hook relief information

Dear Ms. Calder,

Attached are the National Philanthropic Trust responses to the questions regarding the Sandy Hook School tragedy. Our donors have donor advised funds with us and can recommend that we process a grant from their fund to any 501c3 public charity. In the aftermath of tragedies and natural disasters, we do post the names of some organizations on our site from time to time that donors may wish to consider donating to in order to assist. At present, we have organizations posted that are providing relief in the wake of the Oklahoma Tornadoes.

We have responded to the questions, and after a comprehensive search of our databases, we found that one grant for $1000 to the United Way of Western Ct did go out with a purpose listed to support the Sandy Hook Relief Fund. I have also attached a copy of the screen shot that was listed on our web page that noted the charities that in the immediate aftermath of the tragedy were providing assistance and relief.

If you have any questions, please let me know. Many thanks!

All the best,

Andrea
