Re: Consumer Protection Inquiry re: Capulet Fest 2024

Dear Mr. Vega:

This Office has become aware of several complaints from Connecticut consumers, and related news reports, arising from the Capulet Fest 2024 music festival (“Festival”) originally scheduled for June 28-30, 2024. To assist our inquiry into these complaints about Capulet Entertainment, LLC (“You”), we ask that You provide responses to the following requests by close of business on July 8, 2024. Responses should be directed to the undersigned at joseph.gasser@ct.gov. Your cooperation with these requests may obviate a more formal demand.

1. Produce copies of all advertising directed to Connecticut consumers for the Festival, including but not limited to webpages, social media posts, and print materials.
2. Identify the individuals responsible for the organization, planning, and management of the Festival.
3. Describe in detail the reason for changing the location of the Festival from Thompson Motor Speedway to the Webster Theater, including when You first learned the festival would not go forward at Thompson Motor Speedway.
4. Produce copies of all communications to Connecticut consumers regarding the change in location.
5. Describe in detail the reason for the cancellation of the third day of the Festival.
6. Produce copies of all communications to Connecticut consumers regarding the cancellation of the third day of the Festival.
7. Identify the number of tickets for the Festival You sold or caused to be sold, including the price of each ticket.
8. Provide an accounting of the revenues You collected, or that were collected on Your behalf, for the Festival.
9. Describe in detail Your plan, if any, to provide refunds to Connecticut consumers affected by the Festival’s move and the cancellation of the third day.
