

9/9/44 - "of the 15 seeds in 1939 & which were planted in very rich soil in a sheltered area, 3 are still alive. They seem to be quite thrifty, but are not appreciably taller than when --- planted."

* 8/7/46 - Three living, not more than 6 ft. high.