Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist

Course # 17176

Fire Marshal Credit: 7

This two-day course is based on requirements of National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 1035, Standard on Fire and Life Safety Educator, Public Information Officer, Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist and Youth Firesetter Program Manager Professional Qualifications. This course provides students with a broad understanding of the knowledge, skills and abilities that the Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist should have as requirements of NFPA Standard 1035 pertaining to youth firesetting. This course is for the practitioner who provides services at the program delivery level. It replaces Youth Firesetting Prevention and Intervention - Level 1.

Decision Making for Initial Company Operations

Course # 17177

This two-day course is designed to develop the decision-making skills needed by Company Officers (COs) to accomplish assigned tactics at structure fires. All activities and scenarios used in this course are based on structure fires. With the real possibility of being the first to arrive at an incident, the CO's initial decisions will have an impact throughout the entire incident. It is vital that COs be able to make good management decisions that have a favorable impact on the eventual outcome. In addition to a possible role as the initial Incident Commander, the CO may well be assigned a subordinate position within the Incident Command System organization. COs need to have a clear understanding of the system, the position that they are assigned to, and their role in the organization if they are to function effectively and help make the system work.

This course is specifically designed for newly appointed COs and for firefighters who may have acting CO responsibilities or who want to become a CO. This course is an excellent review for experienced COs.

Strategy and Tactics for Initial Company Operations

Course # 17178

This two-day course is designed to meet the needs of Company Officers (COs) responsible for managing the operations of one or more companies during structural firefighting operations. This course is designed to develop the management skills needed by COs to accomplish assigned tactics at structure fires.

Target audience senior firefighters who may at times assume the responsibilities of the CO (National Fire Protection Association 1001, Standard for Fire Fighter Professional Qualifications, Level II).

Complete both sides of the attached application and return to the Connecticut Fire Academy by January 27, 2017

Building Organizational Support for Community Risk Reduction

Course # 17179

Fire Marshal Credit: 10

This two-day course is designed to help fire and emergency services learn what community risk reduction is and how to build organizational support for it. This course will address the challenges that fire departments face in shifting their priorities from response to prevention. In many departments, community risk reduction is still considered a low priority. This course will show you how community risk reduction can help you and your department become more of a community player in times of decreased budgets. The target audience for this course may include the following: Fire and emergency services personnel who want to learn about community risk reduction. Fire and emergency services personnel who are currently involved with fire prevention and have an interest in advancing risk-reduction efforts in their community.

Incident Command System for Structural Collapse Incidents

Course # 17180

This two-day course is designed to provide fire officers with an understanding of command operations at structural collapse incidents. Students completing this course will be able to: Describe the aspects of a structural collapse. Explain basic command procedures and Incident Command System (ICS) organizational structure. Identify various resource levels, types and capabilities used for structural collapse incidents. Identify critical factors and issues that affect scene management. Describe all unique operational considerations used at a structural collapse incident. Describe all response operations phases associated with a structural collapse incident. Describe the technical rescue expertise and equipment required for safe operations and effective incident management. Students attending should understand and be able to apply the ICS concept.

New Fire Chief: Contemporary Issues

Course # 17181

Fire Marshal Credit: 7

This two-day course will develop the managerial skills, leadership skills, and contemporary issues and awareness necessary for newly appointed or elected fire chiefs to effectively meet their obligations. The course will help to develop knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary for them to perform effectively now and in the future. The primary audience is newly appointed or elected fire chiefs in volunteer, combination or career departments. The secondary audience is departmental leaders who may become fire chiefs and local-level government administrators and elected officials, including fire district commissioners, board members, etc.

Good Morning

Today, Assistant Attorney General Michael Cole notified us that the Office of the Connecticut Attorney General and Amphastar, the manufacturer of Naloxone, have agreed to extend the Naloxone Rebate for an additional year. He asks that we notify all Connecticut Public Safety agencies of this extended agreement.

The rebate provides $6 back to agencies for each dose purchased during the quarter periods. Two quarters have closed so far in the program providing $81,054 in rebates for 13,509 doses.

Attached to this letter are the forms and directions for agencies to take part in the rebate through it's closing on March 24, 2018.

Governor Malloy's Office asked Common Cents EMS Supply to process the rebate program for Connecticut State and Municipal Agencies. Through an Agreement with the Office of the Attorney general we are providing this on a volunteer basis without charge.

We would appreciate your assistance in getting this our to your agencies and memberships to announce the extension of the program.

Thank you for your service.
