There has been much concern among first responders, law enforcement, and fire fighters about the dangers of fentanyl handling. The Administration recognized this health issue required immediate action and called for standardized guidance based in science, as applicable at all levels; Federal, state, and local. After a review of current Federal recommendations, the Center for Disease Control's National Institute of Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) developed the guidance @ <https://www.cdc.gov/niosh/topics/fentanyl/default.html> for fentanyl handling. This guidance provides information on personal protective equipment @ <https://www.cdc.gov/niosh/topics/fentanyl/risk.html> and a NIOSH Emergency Response Card for Fentanyl @ https://www.cdc.gov/niosh/ershdb/EmergencyResponseCard_29750022.html outlining the levels of protection based on different exposures.

Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist

Course # 17176

Fire Marshal Credit: 7

This two-day course is based on requirements of National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 1035, Standard on Fire and Life Safety Educator, Public Information Officer, Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist and Youth Firesetter Program Manager Professional Qualifications. This course provides students with a broad understanding of the knowledge, skills and abilities that the Youth Firesetter Intervention Specialist should have as requirements of NFPA Standard 1035 pertaining to youth firesetting. This course is for the practitioner who provides services at the program delivery level. It replaces Youth Firesetting Prevention and Intervention - Level 1.

Decision Making for Initial Company Operations

Course # 17177

This two-day course is designed to develop the decision-making skills needed by Company Officers (COs) to accomplish assigned tactics at structure fires. All activities and scenarios used in this course are based on structure fires. With the real possibility of being the first to arrive at an incident, the CO's initial decisions will have an impact throughout the entire incident. It is vital that COs be able to make good management decisions that have a favorable impact on the eventual outcome. In addition to a possible role as the initial Incident Commander, the CO may well be assigned a subordinate position within the Incident Command System organization. COs need to have a clear understanding of the system, the position that they are assigned to, and their role in the organization if they are to function effectively and help make the system work.

This course is specifically designed for newly appointed COs and for firefighters who may have acting CO responsibilities or who want to become a CO. This course is an excellent review for experienced COs.

Strategy and Tactics for Initial Company Operations

Course # 17178

This two-day course is designed to meet the needs of Company Officers (COs) responsible for managing the operations of one or more companies during structural firefighting operations. This course is designed to develop the management skills needed by COs to accomplish assigned tactics at structure fires.

Target audience senior firefighters who may at times assume the responsibilities of the CO (National Fire Protection Association 1001, Standard for Fire Fighter Professional Qualifications, Level II).

Complete both sides of the attached application and return to the Connecticut Fire Academy by January 27, 2017

This course will show you how community risk reduction can help you and your department become more of a community player in times of decreased budgets. The target audience for this course may include the following: Fire and emergency services personnel who want to learn about community risk reduction. Fire and emergency services personnel who are currently involved with fire prevention and have an interest in advancing risk-reduction efforts in their community.

Dear Litchfield County and neighboring firefighters;

The rebuilding of the Burrville Fire School is slated to start in the early spring of 2017. The contract for the design/build team has been awarded to PDS Engineering out of Bloomfield. We are meeting with them on a weekly basis to finalize the design. This summer we plan on running a Firefighter I and II course that is designed for college students. The spring Firefighter I certification course will be run on Tuesday and Thursday evenings and some weekends. The course will include certification at the Hazardous Materials Awareness and Operational levels. The cost is $1,050 which includes all exam fees, student textbook, and student workbook.
