8. A Note from the Everyday Hero CT Program

The Everyday Hero CT volunteer firefighter recruitment campaign launched a Facebook page. As another layer of communications support for the program, the page is dedicated to sharing volunteer recruitment messages with the residents of Connecticut and encouraging people to learn more about how they can help their local departments. The Volunteer Workforce Solutions and Connecticut Fire Chiefs Association Facebook pages will continue to provide Everyday Hero CT program updates with regard to specific benefits for departments, etc. The Facebook page is @EverydayHeroCT – please visit it, click "like", and share it on your department's Facebook page as well as with your Facebook friends. The more exposure you can help us achieve the better.

9. Chiefs Urged to Include Civil Unrest Plans in All-Hazards Preparedness

The deadly events this past weekend in Charlottesville, Va., serve as a grim reminder that fire departments must include potential civil unrest in their all-hazards response planning.

The IAFC has the following resources available:

Civil Unrest white paper (PDF)

Civil Unrest Standard Operating Procedure (PDF)

Active Shooter Toolkit (includes ballistic-protection resources)

InterAgency Board's Active Shooter/Hostile Event Guide (PDF)

NFPA 1500 Chapter 8 – 8.10 Scenes of Violence, Civil Unrest, or Terrorism

The IAFC expresses its deepest condolences to the families and friends of the demonstrator and two Virginia state troopers who lost their lives.

10. Fake Solar Eclipse Glasses: Your Community May Be at Risk

Millions of Americans will watch the Aug. 21 solar eclipse and have already purchased (or will) eclipse glasses or handheld solar viewers to do so. Some of these people may be at risk from counterfeit glasses and viewers sold by disreputable vendors trying to cash in on this rare event. Watching the eclipse with fake protective gear can cause permanent eye damage, making this a community risk reduction issue.

Only glasses and viewers verified by an accredited testing laboratory to meet ISO 12312-2 are safe to use when viewing the eclipse. This standard requires glasses and viewers to be thousands of times darker than typical sunglasses.

It may be hard to tell the difference between genuine protective gear and fake glasses/viewers as some counterfeit makers are placing ISO labels on them. The American Astronomical Society (AAS) has guidance to help eclipse watchers determine if their eclipse glasses or handheld solar viewers are safe. In addition, NASA recommends that eclipse watchers refer to the AAS's website for a list of reputable vendors selling solar glasses and viewers.

Fire and EMS departments: You can help alert community residents to the dangers of these fake glasses and viewers by spreading the word through appropriate communications channels, especially social media.

How to view the 2017 solar eclipse safely

Remind community residents that they can experience the eclipse safely, but it is vital that they protect their eyes at all times with the proper solar glasses and viewers. NASA safety tips for watching the eclipse.

CONNECTICUT STATE FIREFIGHTERS ASSOCIATION

MEMORIAL FOUNDATION

Firefighter Memorial Drive

Greetings Friends of the Fire Service!

2017 Fundraiser

First, we would like to reach out and thank you who have lent tremendous support over the past years. Because of your commitment and involvement, the Memorial committee has been able to construct and maintain our beautiful Fallen Firefighter Memorial at the Connecticut Fire Academy. This monument will always be a tribute to the many firefighters whom have paid the ultimate sacrifice in order to protect the lives of our states citizens.

The challenge however, is that there are many other agencies and individuals we need to hear from. 14 years of weathering the elements have taken their toll. The panels bearing the names of those who perished in the line of duty are deteriorating and fading. Also the ongoing support to maintain the current level of upkeep it takes to run our program. In the tradition of the firefighter brotherhood, we need a strong response from the masses to properly maintain the memory of our fallen brethren.

We know that you and your organizations understand the importance of remembering the Connecticut 341 fallen brothers along with the families they have left behind. Therefore, in order to raise the standard of celebrating their lives honorably, this years memorial dinner will be held on Monday, October 2nd, 2017 at the Aqua Turf in Southington, Connecticut. The event begins at 5:30 P.M. with a cash bar, program promptly starting at 6:30 with dinner to follow at 7:00 P.M.

To plan this special occasion, enclosed is an announcement and reservation form. You may also make a monetary donation using the reservation form. Also note we are a 501-C-3 organization and your contribution may be tax deductible. Please return the reservation form and your payment by September 25th. Hope to see you on October 2nd!
Sincerely,

Vaughan Dumas

FREE — 2 Day Hands-On Training

MGT 417 - Crisis Management for School-Based Incidents for Key Decision Makers

Windsor Locks, CT / October 4-5, 2017

The purpose of this performance-level course is to provide the operational-level details to support many of the topics covered in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) approved AWR 148: Crisis Management for School-Based Incidents – Partnering Rural Law Enforcement and the Local School Systems awareness-level course. Rural schools, law enforcement, other emergency responders, and community stakeholders are often limited in their access to resources, so it is imperative that all potentially affected parties collaborate in planning, preparation, communication, response, and recovery in the event of a school-based incident. Moreover, these affected parties must come together to practice their interoperable skills through drills and exercises to ensure the strategies in place provide for an effective crisis response and collaborative recovery.

With the intent of building upon the foundation of the AWR 148 course and utilizing an all-hazards approach, this two-day course will provide content instruction, develop concept-specific skills, and provide opportunities for law enforcement, school personnel, and community stakeholders to collaboratively apply the course objectives in scenario-based applications.

Topics covered in this course include:

- All-Hazards Planning and Preparedness
- Vulnerability Assessments
- Threat Assessment Management
- All-Hazards Response
- All-Hazards Recovery
- Scenario-Based Activities

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- All First Responders
- School Administrators
- School Safety and Security Personnel
- Community Emergency Management Personnel
- Community Mental Health Personnel
- Community Stakeholders

* Please note all Non-U.S. citizens need to complete a DHS Foreign National Visitor Request Form by September 4, 2017 in order to attend this course. Contact John Kayser with any questions.

Size-Up, Situational Awareness

SEMINAR: Size-Up, Situational Awareness

This ALL-DAY seminar is a MUST for every firefighter and fire officer. Knowing when to stay or when to go are the critical factors outlined in this seminar. Situational Awareness, or the lack of it, is a consistent series of factors that leads to the success or failure of an emergency incident. The crucial component(s) in this seminar focus on what to look for, how to anticipate ahead of your incident and being prepared for the expected as well as the unexpected. We will cover size-up factors for various occupancies, as well as suggested strategy and tactics for the first due engine, ladder and chief officer. Additionally in this seminar, we will provide you with uniformed/informative and disciplined approach toward scene management and control through use of the FD radio. In this program we will provide you with a scripted outline for the initial radio report, the alarm status report, and the incident scene progress report. By reviewing actual radio transmission clips and case studies, we will provide your department with a uniformed approach on what to say, how to say it and how it should affect your fire ground operations.

Michael Terpak has been in the fire service for 41 years spending the last 36 years with the Jersey City Fire Department where he recently retired as a Deputy Chief and City-Wide Tour Commander. Throughout his career he has worked in the city's Lafayette and Greenville areas with Engines 10 & 17, Ladder 12, Rescue 1, Chief of the city's 2nd. Battalion and the former Chief in-charge of the city's Training Division. In addition to the above, he was also the High-Rise Training Coordinator for Jersey City. Terpak travels extensively around the country lecturing on fire/rescue topics and is the founder of Promotional Prep, a New Jersey based consulting firm designed to prepare firefighters and fire officers studying for promotional exams.

Chief Terpak, who also holds a BS degree in Fire Safety Administration from the City University of New Jersey, is the author of five best-selling books, "Fire Ground Size-Up", "Assessment Center Strategy and Tactics", "Fire Ground Operational Guides", "Assessment Center Management and Supervision" and "Fire Officer Oral Assessment Study Guides."
