6. The Makers of Hormel® Chili Set Out to Crown America's Best Firehouse Chili

Nothing elicits a sense of pride at fire stations across the country quite like a firehouse kitchen that produces quality eats, especially chili. That's why the makers of HORMEL® Chili are working to highlight the underappreciated cooking talents of firefighters everywhere, while also giving firehouses across the country a chance to win $10,000.

Teaming up with the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation \(NFFF\), the makers of HORMEL® Chili will conduct the "America's Best Firehouse Chili Contest" to discover the best firehouse chili recipe in America. The brand officially kicked off their partnership with the NFFF at the Fire Department Instructor's Conference (FDIC) on April 24, 2017 in Indianapolis, Indiana. The FDIC is a six-day conference, full of workshops, seminars, competitions, networking and more.

"The makers of HORMEL® Chili are proud to work with the National Fallen Firefighters Foundation because they not only do so much for active firefighters, but also work continuously to honor fallen firefighters and their families," said Mark Beierle, HORMEL® Chili brand manager. Our company has great respect for the NFFF and help raise money nationwide for the families of these fallen heroes."
