LISA B. GILIBERTO

COMMISSIONER BIOGRAPHY

Lisa is a Senior Attorney with the Victim Rights Center of Connecticut, a program of the Connecticut Alliance to End Sexual Violence. She provides pro bono representation to victims of sexual assault and stalking in the criminal cases against their offenders and in the obtaining of protective orders on their behalf.

In 2021 she was appointed to the Council on Sexual Misconduct Climate Assessments, a legislative committee tasked with recommending sexual misconduct climate assessments to institutions of higher education and guidelines for their implementation.

Lisa has been a steadfast advocate for the enforcement of civil rights and equal opportunity and was honored to be appointed as a Commissioner to the Commission on Human Rights And Opportunities in 2015. She had previously been appointed as one of the first Human Rights Referees in the agency's Office of Public Hearings and therefore has a unique understanding of the inner workings of that office. She is proud to be working along with her co-commissioners to carry out the agency's important work on behalf of the citizens of Connecticut.

Lisa is a graduate of Tufts University and the University of Connecticut School of Law. She lives with her family in Glastonbury, Connecticut.
