

CHRO Mission

The Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities:

Enforces human rights laws that ban illegal discrimination in employment, housing, public accommodations, and credit transactions

Monitors compliance with state contract compliance laws and with laws requiring affirmative action in state agency personnel practices

Establishes equal opportunity and justice for all persons in Connecticut through education and outreach activities.

We're Here for You

Connecticut anti-discrimination law aims at establishing equal opportunity and justice for all persons within the state. Ensuring compliance with the law requires an understanding of what the law covers, doesn't cover, and how to make sure all legal obligations are met.

The attorneys of the CHRO can make sure you're provided with the most up-to-date information on anti-discrimination law and the state of civil rights in Connecticut so that we can all work to eliminate discrimination in our society.

Did you know?

CHRO provides regular training on a variety of topics. Come to our website at www.ct.gov/CHRO to access our Sexual Harassment Prevention Training, Fair Housing Training, Domestic Violence Training, and more.
