NOTICE TO ALL
HEALTH INSURANCE COMPANIES, HEALTH CARE CENTERS, HOSPITAL
SERVICE CORPORATIONS, AND MEDICAL SERVICE CORPORATIONS
THAT DELIVER OR ISSUE INDIVIDUAL OR GROUP HEALTH INSURANCE POLICIES IN CONNECTICUT

CONCERNING

PUBLIC ACT 22-47, SECTIONS 71 TO 73, INCLUSIVE

Sections 71-73, inclusive, of Public Act 22-47, An Act Concerning Children's Mental Health, made amendments to sections of the Insurance Statutes (specifically, Conn. Gen. Stat. §§ 38a-591d, 38a-591e, and 38a-591f). The amendments, which become effective on January 1, 2023, require certain information on adverse determination notices to be prominently displayed on the notice's first page or cover sheet and that such language be approved by the Office of the Healthcare Advocate (OHA).

The Connecticut Insurance Department wishes to advise all health insurance companies, health care centers, hospital service corporations, and medical service corporations, that OHA, consistent with Public Act 22-47, has published on its website such approved language which can be accessed using the following link:

<https://portal.ct.gov/OHA/Resources/Adverse-Determination-Notices>

In accordance with Public Act 22-47, such language must appear on adverse determination notices beginning January 1, 2023. Please note that should OHA make any amendments to such approved language it will do so on its website at the same link identified above.
