RE: MCM Acquisition 2017, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (an SBA Communications Corporation entity) Notice of ownership change and request to transfer certificate

Dear Attorney Bachman:

Pursuant to the requirements of Connecticut General Statutes, we are submitting this letter to inform you of several towers our company has recently acquired in the State of Connecticut. Message Center Management, Inc. and MC Towers, Inc. are merged into MCM Acquisition 2017, LLC, a Florida limited liability company (an SBA Communications Corporation entity). Our company is now owner of the following tower facilities.

- 81 Montevideo Road, Avon, CT (tower formally owned by MC Towers, Inc.)
The Council approved exempt Modification EM-MCM-004-070824 on October 16, 2007 for a modification to the existing telecommunication facility.
- 39 Nichols Road. (aka 169 Trowbridge), East Haddam, CT (tower formally owned by Message Center Management, Inc.)
The Council approved Docket No. 255 on September 23, 2003 for construction, maintenance and operation of this telecommunications facility.
- 465 Hills Street, East Hartford, CT (tower formally owned by Message Center Management, Inc.)
The Council approved Docket No. 436 on July 25, 2013 for construction, maintenance and operation of this telecommunications facility.
- 490 Jefferson Avenue (aka Bates Woods Park), New London, CT (tower formally owned by Message Center Management, Inc.)
The Council approved Docket No. 439 on October 31, 2013 for construction, maintenance and operation of this telecommunications facility.
- 4 Dittmar Road, Redding, CT (tower formally owned by Message Center Management, Inc.)
The Council approved Docket No. 425 on June 21, 2012 for construction, maintenance and operation a replacement telecommunications facility.
- 599 Greenwoods Road East (aka U.S. Route 44), Norfolk, CT (tower formally owned by Message Center Management, Inc.)
The Council approved Docket No. 320 on March 13, 2007 for construction, maintenance and operation of this telecommunications facility.
