RE: AT&T Cell Phone Tower
95 Balance Road – East Hartland, CT

Dear Mr. Caruso:

My office was recently contacted by Thomas and Elise Sirman regarding AT&T's proposal to the Connecticut Siting Council ("Council") to construct a cellular telephone tower in East Hartland.

I believe the location proposed by AT&T is poorly sited - - in close proximity to a residential neighborhood - - and could adversely affect the health of the surrounding community. This site also raises concerns because it abuts the Tunxis State Forest. In light of these important objections, AT&T should reconsider its decision.

I ask that Council review these important issues and follow its statutory mandate to consider alternative sites that would limit any impact on the citizens of East Hartland and Connecticut and the health of the surrounding community.

Thank you very much.

Very truly yours,
