RESOURCES DETERMINATION

June 24, 2015

Verizon Wireless

APT Project No.: CT1412760

Re: Proposed Bethel West Facility
15 Great Pasture Road
Bethel, Connecticut

On behalf of Celco Partnership doing business as Verizon Wireless, All-Points Technology Corporation, P.C. ("APT") performed an evaluation with respect to the proposed Facility's potential impacts on historic resources proximate to the referenced site.

The results of our independent review of sites listed, or eligible for listing, on the National Register of Historic Places ("NRHP") reveals that no such resources are located within one-half mile of the site.¹ Further, no State or local historic districts or other resources are located within one-half mile of the site. The nearest NRHP site is located over 0.75 mile away and no views of the proposed Facility would be gained from this location.

As part of Verizon Wireless' due diligence for compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act ("NEPA"), APT submitted applicable historic documentation to the State Historic Preservation Office ("SHPO") on May 14, 2015 for this agency's review and determination. The SHPO submission was prepared by a qualified architectural historian. A copy of APT's SHPO submission is provided as an attachment to this memorandum.

To date, no formal response has been issued by the SHPO. However, based on our research, it is APT's opinion that the proposed Facility would have no effect on historic properties listed or eligible for listing on the NRHP.

Sincerely,

Michael Libertine,
Director of Siting and Permitting

¹ For towers under 200 feet tall, the APE has been established at 0.5 mile. This distance represents the Area of Potential Effect ("APE") established cooperatively by the Federal Communications Commission, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation and the National Conference of State Historic Preservation Officers.

Re: Proposed Wireless Telecommunications Facility
Bethel West 2
15 Great Pasture Road, Danbury, Fairfield County, Connecticut 06810
APT Project #: CT1412760
EnSite #: 24591

Determination of Effects for the Proposed Installation of a 123' Tall Monopole Tower Located at 15 Great Pasture Road, Danbury, Connecticut:

In accordance with the Federal Communication Commission (FCC) National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) rules and Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA), the above-referenced telecommunications project, proposed by Celco Partnership and its controlled affiliates doing business as Verizon Wireless (Verizon Wireless), is being evaluated for its potential effects to districts, sites, buildings, structures, or objects significant in American history, architecture, archeology, engineering, or culture that are listed, or potentially eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places (NRHP).

In accordance with the Nationwide Agreement, please find the attached Submission Packet, FCC Form 620, which presents the details on the proposed project as well as efforts that have been taken to identify, assess, and make determinations of effect on the impacts of the proposed project on Historic Properties. As part of this Undertaking, Verizon Wireless is proposing to build a 123' Monopole Communications Tower facility at 15 Great Pasture Road in Danbury, Fairfield County, Connecticut 06810. The 123' tall Monopole Communications Tower would be built within a $\pm 50'$ by $\pm 50'$ gravel and fenced equipment compound/lease area. A proposed $\pm 20'$ wide access and utility easement would follow the existing paved drive off of Great Pasture Road.

File reviews of the National Register Database, Connecticut State Historic Register, and Connecticut State Historic Resource Inventory were conducted by Lucas Karmazinas, architectural historian with FuturePast Preservation, and Mr. William Keegan, Historical Geographer & GIS Specialist, with Heritage Consultants, LLC, to identify Historic Properties within the 0.5-mile Area for Potential Effect (APE) for Visual and Direct Effects. No (1) Historic Properties¹ previously listed or deemed eligible for the National Register of Historic Places were identified within the APE for Direct or Visual Effects.

Attachment 4 – Site Information – Additional Site Information

Describe any additional structures, access roads, utility lines, fences, easements, or other construction planned for the site in conjunction with the proposed tower and related facilities. Use this attachment to provide additional details needed to provide a full and accurate description of any structural alterations, additions, or other construction activities that will take place to complete the tower.

Additional Site Information and Recommendations:

The Subject Property, located at 15 Great Pasture Road in Danbury is situated on the west side of Great Pasture Road east of Sympaug Brook. The surrounding area to the north and east along Great Pasture Road and Wooster Street is a industrial park with large-scale modern commercial and industrial buildings.

The proposed tower location is situated in a portion of Danbury that was very sparsely developed as of the mid to late nineteenth century. Areas of significant development were located to the south, east, and northwest of the proposed project parcel at that time. The proposed tower location was situated on what was an outlying piece of land during the late nineteenth century; this parcel likely was used for agriculture. This interpretation is confirmed by an aerial image dating from 1934, which shows the area surrounding the proposed project parcel as an open landscape dominated by agricultural fields. Figure 5, which is an aerial image taken in 1965, documented a significant change in the landscape in the immediate vicinity of the proposed tower location. This included the construction of the nearby large commercial building that still exists on the subject parcel. An aerial image captured in 1990, shows essentially the same pattern, but with some changes. By that time, it is clear that the portion of the parcel containing the proposed tower was altered, likely by significant fill deposits and continued construction in the area. The subsequent 2004 and 2014 aerial images show the area surrounding the proposed tower location in its essentially modern state. This portion of Danbury contains several commercial buildings and large areas of previous disturbances.

Verizon Wireless is proposing to build a 123' Monopole Communications Tower facility at 15 Great Pasture Road in Danbury, Fairfield County, Connecticut. The 123' tall Monopole Communications Tower would be built within a $\pm 50'$ gravel and fenced equipment compound/lease area. A proposed $\pm 20'$ wide access and utility easement would follow the existing paved drive off of Great Pasture Road.

Site Plans provided by Verizon Wireless are included in this attachment.

Attachment 5 – Determination of Effect Attachments

You are required to provide two attachments regarding the Determination of Effect: Areas of Potential Effect and Mitigation of Effect (if applicable).

Areas of Potential Effect Guidelines:

Direct Effects

a. Describe the APE for direct effects and explain how this APE was determined.

The APE for Direct Effects is limited to the area of potential ground disturbance and any property, or any portion thereof, that will be physically altered or destroyed by the construction of the proposed telecommunications facility.

A field survey completed by a representative of Heritage Consultants, LLC on April 25, 2015 that the APE for Direct Effects is confined to the proposed tower location and access road. A pedestrian survey of the proposed tower location and the associated access road by representatives of Heritage Consultants, LLC was completed on April 25, 2015. Given the previously disturbed nature of the area, it is the professional opinion of Heritage Consultants, LLC that there are no Historic Properties in the Area of Potential Effect for Direct Effects.

Please see the attached Preliminary Archaeological Assessment from Heritage Consultants dated April 29, 2015.

Visual Effects

b. Describe the APE for visual effects and explain how this APE was determined.

The APE for Visual Effects is the geographic area in which the Undertaking has the potential to introduce visual elements that diminish or alter the setting, including the landscape, where the setting is a character-defining feature of a Historic Property that makes it eligible for listing on the National Register. The Nationwide Programmatic Agreement governing new tower construction indicates that, unless otherwise established through consultation with the SHPO/THPO, the presumed APE for visual effects relative to the construction of new facilities is a) 0.5-mile radius for towers 200 feet or less in overall height, b) 0.75-mile radius for towers greater than 200 but no more than 400 feet in overall height; or, c) 1.5-mile radius for towers greater than 400 feet in overall height.

The aforementioned field survey completed on April 25, 2015 confirmed that the .5-mile APE for Visual Effects for this project is appropriate. No adjustments are recommended to the APE as defined under the Nationwide Programmatic Agreement, and .5-mile radius was considered acceptable for establishing visual impacts of the planned undertaking based on overall structure height of 123 feet.

Given this information, it is the professional opinion of the investigator that there are no Historic Properties in the Area of Potential Effects for Visual Effects.

¹ The Nationwide Programmatic Agreement defines a "Historic Property" as "Any prehistoric or historic district, site, building, structure, or object included in, or eligible for inclusion in, the National Register maintained by the Secretary of the Interior. This term includes artifacts, records, and remains that are related to and located within such properties. The term includes properties of traditional religious and cultural importance to an Indian tribe or NHO that meet the National Register criteria."

NEW TOWER SUBMISSION PACKET – FCC FORM 620

Mitigation of Effect Guidelines:

In the case where an Adverse Visual Effect or Adverse Direct Effect has been determined you must provide the following:

- 1. Copies of any correspondence and summaries of any oral communications with the SHPO/THPO and any consulting parties.*

As of the date of this report, there has been no correspondence with the SHPO/THPO.

Describe any alternatives that have been considered that might avoid, minimize, or mitigate any adverse effects. Explain the Applicant's conclusion regarding the feasibility of each alternative.

No Historic Properties previously listed or deemed eligible for listing on the National Register of Historic Places are located within the APEs for Direct or Visual effects; therefore, alternatives that might avoid, minimize, or mitigate any adverse effects need not be considered. As such, as of the date of this report, there has been no correspondence with the SHPO/THPO regarding mitigation of effect.

Attachment 6 – Historic Properties Attachment

You are required to provide two attachments regarding the Determination of Effect: Areas of Potential Effect and Mitigation of Effect (if applicable).

File reviews of the National Register Database, Connecticut State Historic Register, and Connecticut State Historic Resource Inventory were conducted by Lucas Karmazinas, architectural historian with FuturePast Preservation, and Mr. William Keegan, Historical Geographer & GIS Specialist, with Heritage Consultants, LLC, to identify Historic Properties within the APEs for Visual and Direct Effects. Mr. Karmazinas also completed an evaluation of NRHP eligibility, according to the NRHP criteria of eligibility (36 C.F.R. Part 63), for any additional properties identified within the APE for direct or visual effects that may not have been identified during a review of the aforementioned files. The results of these reviews are discussed below, as necessary.

Historic Properties Identified within the APE for Direct Effects:

There are no Historic Properties located within the APE for Direct Effects.

Historic Properties Identified within the APE for Visual Effects:

No Historic Properties previously listed or deemed eligible for the National Register of Historic Places were identified within the APE for Visual Effects.

As of the date of this report, All-Points Technology has not received comments from Indian Tribes, NHOs, local governments, or members of the public that identify Historic Properties in the APE for visual effects that are not listed in the above list of Historic Properties.

No properties included in the APEs were considered no longer eligible for inclusion in the National Register by the Applicant.

Project Number: CT1412760

Project Location: 15 Great Pasture Road, Danbury, CT 06810

Attachment 7 – Tribal and NHO Involvement

At an early stage in the planning process, the Nationwide Agreement requires the Applicant to gather information from appropriate Indian Tribes or Native Hawaiian Organizations (NHOs) to assist in the identification of Historic Properties of religious and cultural significance to them. Describe measures taken to identify Indian tribes and NHOs that may attach religious and cultural significance to Historic Properties that may be affected by the tower construction within the Areas of Potential Effects (APE) for direct and visual effects. If such Indian tribes or NHOs were identified, list them and provide a summary of contacts by either the FCC, the Applicant, or the Applicant's representative. Provide copies of relevant documents, including correspondence. If no such Indian tribes or NHOs were identified, please explain.

All-Points Technology Corporation, P.C. completed the Tower Construction Notification System (TCNS) on April 14, 2015. The attached FCC Notification email lists the Tribes identified through the TCNS process. Follow up correspondence, when necessary, will be completed via the methods listed on the attached email considered acceptable to each Tribe.

ASK AMY

Take Road Trip To Reconnect With Son

DEAR AMY: My 19-year-old son has grown very distant. I got divorced when he was 14. Afterward our relationship was the best I could manage...

ASK AMY

I attended all important events and spent as much time as possible with him. It was not as close a relationship as I would have liked, but it was functional.

Since his high school graduation night two years ago, I have not had any communication from him. All texts, phone calls and emails go unanswered.

Although I still have a functional relationship with my older son (we share dinners and talk about his life, school and his plans after college) the only information about my youngest comes through his mother (and yes, she has addressed the issue with him, unsuccessfully).

I have been consistent in my messages, asking to get together and telling him I'm here for him and always will be.

My greatest fear now is that we will grow further apart and I will miss out on his life experiences. What else can I do?

—HEARTBROKEN DAD

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: Young men your son's age are somewhat notorious for communicating badly with their parents, but I agree that this is extreme.

You two seem to have a lot of rebuilding to do. I suggest you communicate with your ex and see if you can arrange for you and your older son to pick up your younger son from college at the end of the semester.

Packing the car and taking a road trip together would be an opportunity for you to share an experience and reconnect. Don't push too hard, but don't give up on him.

DEAR AMY: Two brothers (in their late 60s) went on a hunting trip with friends. One of the brothers, "Steve," is my fiancé of 10 years (there are insurance reasons for not marrying).

Prior to the trip Steve assured me there would be no strip clubs. I found out much later (by accident from someone else) that there was a visit to a strip club and that my fiancé's brother "Randy" had a lap dance — and because it was not in the U.S. you get more than a "dance," if you know what I mean.

I am more than angry and disgusted by this behavior. It has had a big impact on trust and sex for me.

I also look at Randy with disgust and feel that his wife of 50 years should know about this.

I am sure it would affect family functions if I told her. Maybe it is none of my business but I feel (woman-to-woman) that it is my business, and if it were me I would want to know. She could be infected by an STD.

Your opinion? —FURIOUS

DEAR FURIOUS: My opinion is that you should stick to your own knitting. You seem to gloss over your gay "Sieves" betrayal of your trust and focus on his brother, who presumably didn't promise that he would visit a strip club.

He and his wife may have a different understanding than you and your fiancé have. Because you don't know for sure what took place (as it is, you learned of this second-hand), you should focus on the impact of this on your own household.

DEAR AMY: I agree with you that "Wondering," the 42-year-old woman suffering from "enmi," is probably having a "midlife crisis," similar to my own at about the same age.

I did two things that worked for me during my crisis. I did buy a small, relatively inexpensive sports car. I also became active in volunteering for a few nonprofit organizations. My crisis was solved and I still volunteer whenever I can, 25 years after my crisis first hit, and my retired husband and I still love my little car.

—NO CRISIS HERE

DEAR NO: These transitional periods affect both women and men. I like your solutions.

Medical Problem Doesn't Excuse Poor Table Manners

JUDITH MARTIN

Dear Miss Manners: My 19-year-old stepdaughter is being invited to a formal dinner dance and asked me to teach her etiquette, so I planned a dinner using all my fine china, silver, crystal, etc. It was a good opportunity to give some pointers that the children weren't clear on.

However, a situation came up with her sister that I didn't know the answer to. She has some physical limitations using one arm, so she has gotten into the habit of using her fingers to tear her meat since cutting is difficult for her.

I felt sure that using her fingers wasn't appropriate but didn't know what other options she might try. What do you suggest?

Dear Miss Manners: Many people now believe that any medical problem, physical or psychological, is a valid excuse for ignoring the customs and expectations of society.

However sympathetic society may be, it recoils from such obvious violations of established convention as eating meat with one's hands.

This leaves the young lady with the choice of broadcasting her difficulty at every shared meal, in the hope that this will draw enough sympathy to counter an adverse reaction (although she can hardly notify everyone at a large gathering), or deciding that she doesn't care if others assume that she is merely grossly unmanly.

Miss Manners would think it preferable to avoid eating food she cannot manage when dining out socially, or, at restaurants, requesting that her meat be cut in the kitchen.

Dear Miss Manners: A man I connected with online invited me to meet him at a restaurant. I ordered a glass of wine. As the conversation ensued, his comments were racist, anti-Semitic, sexist, materialistic, and finally insulting to me and my values.

I stood up and said I was leaving. He said that I should pay for my wine. I said no, because he invited me. I left him with the bill. What do you think?

Dear Miss Manners: That sticking him with the bill would not be nearly as satisfactory as flinging down money on the table, with the clear intention that you consider the price of ridding yourself of the worth it. But then, Miss Manners considers the high-handed insult to have more dignity than the lowly one.

Dear Miss Manners: We've been invited to a wedding where the bride wants it "off the grid." She is planning on having 120 guests and has asked that no one bring a camera or take photos with their cellphones. I'd like to hear your comments.

Dear Miss Manners: One is, "Well, good for her." Another is that Miss Manners considers it a shame to have to instruct one's guests that a wedding ceremony is a solemn rite to which they should be paying quiet attention, and that a wedding reception is a celebration at which they should be socializing.

Dear Miss Manners: I am looking for an appropriate way to uninvite someone to a corporate event. The guest list has been revised, and I need to uninvite five guests.

Dear Miss Manners: If this were a social function, Miss Manners would have to tell you that there is no polite way to rescind a proffered invitation. In contrast, revising the list of attendees to a work meeting carries no such load.

It seems clear that the event in question follows the unfortunate practice of blurring the boundary between professional and private life. Your only hope is to reassert the distinction.

This will be easier to do if the uninvites are employees who were "working" the event, since — after you explain and apologize — you may be able to suggest that their workload is being reduced.

If, however, you have spent the past few months telling everyone that this event is not and not to be — or if these are outside guests — you would do better to locate five more chairs.

Dear Miss Manners: I work with my mother, who happens to be my "boss." In what way would it be best to address her while in the workplace?

Dear Miss Manners: Address her as you would an employer who did not know you, which among other things, Miss Manners points out, means omitting those quotation marks.

To send a question to the Miss Manners team of Judith Martin, Nicholas Iyer Martin and Jacobina Martin, go to missmanners.com or write them c/o Universal Uclick, 1130 Walnut St., Kansas City, MO 64106.

HOROSCOPE

By JERALDINE SAUNDERS Tribune Content Agency

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Forge forward, full steam ahead. A positive take-charge attitude is contagious, so take advantage of every opportunity to indulge in your passions. Since you believe everything will work out for the best, it will.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Strike while the iron is hot and enthusiasm is bubbling up like a geyser. Career success might require nine-tenths perspiration and one-tenth inspiration, but that won't deter you. The more you give, the more you'll get.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Travel, even if it's only a short trip to the other side of town, will broaden your outlook or provide some kind of educative experience. Those you meet are in an upbeat mood and might spend more to get the very best.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Accentuate the positive. If you can't say something nice about someone, say nothing at all. Allow yourself to get caught up in someone else's enthusiasms. Let the other person's passion propel you forward into constructive steps.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Dig down deep to get to the truth. As the ancient quotation says, "the truth will set you free." Be magnanimous when faced with unpleasant facts. Embracing the spirit of forgiveness will solve most troublesome situations.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Give in to trends and don't fight progress. You may feel that you're only one cog in a giant wheel, but without your cooperation nothing will go forward. Be a team player; contribute your fair share on many levels.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Your heart is big enough for two. Be one of the beautiful people by pampering yourself, as well as someone else, with an extravagant treat. Be poised to graciously accept an apology or a generous gesture from your significant other. SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Those in close proximity might hide their feelings early in the day. Find something physical to do to break down barriers. Support and encourage your partner, even if you have to hang on to you that keep up with a frantic pace.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Put money to work on your behalf. It's good to remember that it takes money to make money. Listen to your friends and follow intuitions where matters of chance are concerned and you won't go wrong.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Your get up and go is moving along at full speed. Take the lead to explore uncharted waters and let your fear from the beaten path. You're shrewder than usual about finances. Hard work now can pay off big in the future.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Work like a dog to earn a pat on the head. No rest for the weary is in sight for another day or so, but at a fast break from routine could appear. Be on the lookout for unexpected acts of generosity from a loved one.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Cooperation could be your middle name. At the workplace, you may put the needs of others before your own and make minor sacrifices so everything runs smoothly. Tenacity and true bluntness are the keys to success.

► APRIL 20 IS YOUR BIRTHDAY: You may be challenged during the upcoming 6-8 weeks to achieve your ambitions while still remaining free to circulate among friends. Pay attention to the rules in both June and September, remembering that you aren't above the law. In July you may be inspired by a breath-taking vacation or new romance to reach for your dreams. In late July and early August, your business sense is at a low point, so steer clear of new debts or investments.

RE: Preliminary Archeological Assessment of a Proposed Telecommunications Tower Located at 15 Great Pasture Road in Danbury, Connecticut

Ms. Castro:

Heritage Consultants, LLC, is pleased to have this opportunity to provide All-Points Technology Corporation with the following preliminary archeological assessment of a proposed telecommunications tower located at 15 Great Pasture Road in Danbury, Connecticut (Figure 1). The current project entailed completion of an existing conditions cultural resources summary based on the examination of GIS data obtained from the Connecticut State Historic Preservation Office, as well as historical data, aerial photographs, and topographic quadrangles maintained by Heritage Consultants, LLC. This investigation did not consider the effects of the proposed construction upon built resources, and it is based upon project location information provided to Heritage Consultants, LLC by All-Points Technology Corporation. The objectives of this study were to gather and present data regarding previously identified cultural resources situated within 0.8 km (0.5 mi) of the proposed tower location and to investigate the proposed project parcel in terms of its natural and historical characteristics so that the need for completing additional cultural resources investigations could be evaluated.

Figures 2 and 3 show that the proposed tower location is situated in a portion of Danbury that was little settled as of the mid to late nineteenth century. Areas of significant development were located to the south, east, and northwest of the proposed project parcel at that time. The proposed tower location was likely situated on what was an outlying piece of land during the late nineteenth century; this parcel likely was used for agriculture. This interpretation is confirmed by Figure 4, an aerial image dating from 1934, which shows the area surrounding the proposed project parcel as an open landscape dominated by agricultural fields. Figure 5, which is an aerial image taken in 1965, documented a significant change in the landscape in the immediate vicinity of the proposed tower location. This included the construction of the nearby large commercial building that still exists on the subject parcel. Figure 6, an aerial image captured in 1990, shows essentially the same pattern, but with some changes. By that time, it is clear that the portion of the parcel containing the proposed tower was altered, likely by significant fill deposits and continued construction in the area. The subsequent 2004 and 2014 aerial images, as seen in Figures 7 and 8, show the area surrounding the proposed tower location in its essentially modern state. This portion of Danbury contains several commercial buildings and large areas of previous disturbances.

In addition, a review of previously recorded cultural resources on file with the Connecticut State Historic Preservation Office revealed that while no National Register of Historic Places within 0.8 km (0.5 mi) of the proposed tower location, a single archaeological site (Site 9-10) and a portion of the "Revolutionary Battlefields" are situated within the project region (Figures 9 and 10). Site 9-10 was recorded by Archeological and Historical Services, Inc., in August of 2012. The site was classified as a Middle Archaic period occupation that produced a total of 94 lithic artifacts, a single piece of calcined bone, and 3 Quahog shell fragments. The lithic artifacts included typical waste debris, as well as projectile points and flake tools. The site was assessed as eligible for listing to the National Register of Historic Places under Criterion D. According to the submitted site form, Site 9-10 was scheduled for Phase III Data Recovery in 2013; however, Archeological and Historical Services, Inc., never submitted an updated site form to the State of Connecticut so it is unclear whether or not the planned Data Recovery excavations were completed. Finally, the proposed tower is located in the general vicinity of an area that has been designated by the Connecticut State Historic Preservation Office as Revolutionary War Battlefields. The exact extent of this area is only roughly known, as it was based on documentary evidence and not archaeological data. Despite the presence of the cultural resources within 0.8 km (0.5 mi), construction of the proposed tower will have no direct impact on them.

Finally, a pedestrian survey of the proposed tower location and the associated access road by representatives of Heritage Consultants, LLC was completed on April 25, 2015. Visual inspection of the proposed tower location and associated access road revealed that both areas have been substantially impacted by ground disturbing activities, including mechanical manipulation of the soils and construction of the adjacent commercial building and paved parking area. Thus, this area no longer retains any archaeological potential. Given the previously disturbed nature of the area, it is the professional opinion of Heritage Consultants, LLC that no additional archaeological research is recommended prior to construction of the proposed tower and its associated facilities.
