1. Manner in which intervenor's participation is in the interests of justice and will not impair the orderly conduct of the proceedings:

Joe and Kathy Sweeney ("Intervenors") live at 155 Soundview Lane. The Sweeneys own their property in Trust and have lived in their house since July 1, 1998. The Sweeney's property is adjacent to 183 Soundview, separated only by a driveway leading to 173 Soundview Lane. The Sweeney's will have a direct line of sight to the cell tower from their driveway, front porch, kitchen window and several side bed room windows. At the proposed cell tower location, the construction of the tower will substantially and specifically affect the value of their property. The tower and compound will adversely impact the natural and rural character of their neighborhood, as well as have a significant negative visual impact.

2. Manner and extent to which intervenor proposes to participate:

The Intervenor will provide testimony regarding:

- 1) Probable visibility of the tower from various locations on their property
- 2) Concerns regarding negative impact the tower will have on property value and ability to sell
- 3) Tower construction not adhering to the Town of New Canaan Planning & Zoning Regulations for Cell Towers
- 4) Alternative location that was once considered by the Applicant but not pursued

3. Statutory authority for intervenor request:

Connecticut General Statutes Section 4-177a(b)

4. Nature of evidence intervenor intends to present:

Please see above for a summary of the testimony Petitioners intend to present in the form of oral testimony of Joe Sweeney.

Copies of this request are required to be electronically mailed to all participants on the service list, which can be found on our website in Pending Proceedings under the appropriate docket or petition number, at least five days before the date of the public hearing.
