

Inclement Weather Procedures

DEMHS Early Release and Late Openings Notifications for State Offices:

<http://www.ct.gov/demhs/cwp/view.asp?a=1934&Q=287788&PM=1&demhsNav=|>

IF:	THEN:
If the DEMHS web site indicates a LATE OPENING or directs “non-essential” employees to STAY HOME	The class snow date will automatically be implemented (the length of the delay does not matter). You may: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Check the DEMHS web site the morning of class. • Check CTDN web site: http://www.ct.gov/ctdn for notice of class cancelation.
If the Governor authorizes an EARLY RELEASE for state employees	The class snow date will automatically be implemented so that instructors can make up whatever content was not covered. Take the following steps: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Upon being notified of an early release (from DOT staff; a participant being notified by cell phone, etc.), pause for a class break and verify the early release by checking with the staff at DOT. • Announce the snow date for a make-up class; instruct participants that they must follow the instructions of their own individual agencies and check with their supervisors about returning to work or going home.
If snow or inclement weather is forecast and the instructors would like to RESCHEDULE class to their SNOW DATE	Take the following steps: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Notify Susan Baillargeon (860-594-3606) or Deana Giordano/DOL (860-263-6677) as soon as possible the day before your class • Sue/Deana will send an e-mail message to all participants, no later than 2:00 pm the day before, notifying participants that class has been re-scheduled to the snow date. • In addition, a message will be posted on the CTDN web site to announce the snow date implementation.