

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS REFUND OF RETIREE HEALTH FUND CONTRIBUTIONS MAY 2017

Refunds of Retiree Health Fund Contributions

1. Q—Am I entitled to a refund of my contributions to the Retiree Health Fund if I separate from state service before I qualify for retiree health benefits?

If you haven't accrued enough service to qualify for retiree health coverage you can request a refund of your Retiree Health Fund contributions upon separation from service.

2.Q—I am leaving my full time job with the state but continue to work as an adjunct faculty member, can I get a refund?

No, you can only apply for a refund of Retiree Health Fund Contributions if you terminate from all positions with the state.

3. Q—How do I request a refund of my Retiree Health Fund Contributions?

Use the Form CO-1301 to request a refund. You can find it on the Comptroller's Website, <http://www.osc.ct.gov/agencies/forms/index.html>. The fastest way to get a refund is to submit the application to your agency in time to have it included in your final paycheck.

4. Q—How can an agency expedite a separating employee's refund request so that the refund is paid promptly?

If a separating employee requests a refund the following procedures will assure the prompt processing:

- (a) Agency verifies eligibility for refund;
- (b) Agency determines the amount of the refund by consulting the OPEB Tracking Page in CORE-CT, (see OPEB Tracking Totals page);
- (c) Fill in the Grand Totals Refund Amount on the CO-1301 (Refund Application) and have the employee sign the form prior to the termination date;
- (d) Terminate the OPEB deduction immediately to prevent additional Retiree Health Fund contributions from being collected in remaining paychecks;
- (e) E-mail an override spreadsheet to osc.paycorrections@ct.gov and e-mail a copy of the CO-1301 to OSC.OPEB@ct.gov.

5. Q—Is there any deadline for requesting a refund of OPEB contributions?

A refund can be requested at any time after separation from service. However, you will receive the refund faster if the application is submitted while your Payroll record is still active. If you wait until after termination to request a refund there could be a delay of several months because your position will need to be reactivated in order to issue a check.

6. Q—If I get an OPEB refund, will it be pre-or post-tax?

Your OPEB refund will be post-tax and will be reduced by federal and state income tax, Social Security and Medicare taxes.

7. Q—What will happen if I get a refund of my OPEB contributions and subsequently return to state service?

You have 60 days after returning to state service to elect to repay refunded OPEB amounts. If you do not repay the entire refunded OPEB contributions, you will not be get credit for purposes of retiree healthcare eligibility for any prior service during your refunded OPEB contributions were made. If an employee wants to pay refunded OPEB contributions back over time, the maximum period for repayment will be period during which the refunded deductions were made. If a rehired, healthcare-eligible employee does not repay refunded OPEB contributions, he or she will be subject to 10 years of OPEB contributions starting from the date of rehire.
