LEGISLATIVE UPDATE: P20 WIN CHANGES

Section 284: Amends 10a-57g, effective July 1, 2021

- Reconstitutes the P20 WIN executive board: includes leader of each participating agency, OWS, and OPM, or his or her designee

- Defines E-MOU and requires participating agencies in P20 WIN to enter into an "enterprise memorandum of understanding (E-MOU)" rather than a "memorandum of agreement," adds participating agencies through E-MOU procedures

- Expands P20 WIN's purpose to also include informing policy and practice for education, workforce, and supportive service efforts

- Permits OWS's chief workforce officer, in consultation with the chief data officer and labor commissioner, to annually submit to CP20 WIN's administrator beginning by January 1, 2022, a request for data and analysis to assess performance and outcomes of the state' workforce system; requires the administrator to complete this request by August 15, 2022, and annually thereafter

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE: NEW DATA COLLECTION

- The implementer implements three new forms of data collection:
  - Credential records (section 298)
  - POSA student records (section 303)
  - Enhanced wage records (section 304)
- Sec. 305: requires certain data sharing agreements to adhere to certain protections
- Sec. 306: amends the DRS data privacy statute (12-15) to allow for their participation in P20 WIN

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

- Repealed:
  - 'Legislative Report Card' (CETC annual report to OPM and CGA): (CGS 31-3yy)
  - CETC reporting on WIOA compliance (CGS 31-11t)
  - Colleges and POSAs reporting to OHE (CGS 10a-57b)
  - Higher Education Coordinating Council
