		adulthood.
Foundational Areas	Safety	Success and Well-Being	Equity and Justice
	TAY master skills and competencies needed to thrive in adulthood.	TAY are in long-term, consistent relationships within their families and communities.	Transitional age youth of color are represented, visible, and heard in all leadership spaces.
Outcomes	TAY live in environments that develop and support their assets, access to opportunity,	TAY are healthy, productive, confident, and engaged.	Data disaggregated by race and ethnicity fuels decision making.
	and strengthen their ability to stay safe, secure, and protected.	TAY have stable housing, employment, and educational success.	Disparate outcomes for TAY are eradicated.

V.I.T.A.L PRACTICE STAGES

Engagement & Assessment	Youth Driven Transition Preparation		Launch		Re-Entry
----------------------------	---	--	--------	--	----------	--