

Skin and Hair Care

21-18Policy

The Department of Children and Families (DCF) shall ensure that the basic needs of children and youth in Services Post Majority (SPM) / out-of-home care are addressed appropriately and consistently. Basic needs are inclusive of the special care required for ethnic hair and skin maintenance.

Children and youth in out-of-home care shall have their hair and skin care needs appropriately maintained through the lens of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, cultural perspectives, faith-based beliefs, individual identity, cultural sensitivity, cultural competence, cultural humility as identified by the individual child/youth.

Definition

Cultural Competence means the process of developing the knowledge, skills, attitudes, policies, practices and methods that enable positive staff relationships, and provide culturally relevant services to diverse populations, families and communities in diverse settings and situations.

Cultural Humility means a personal lifelong commitment to self-evaluation and self-critique whereby the individual not only learns about another culture, but starts with an examination of their own beliefs and cultural identities. Cultural humility allows practitioners (i.e. social workers) to be in learning mode instead of a position of power, control and authority; especially in terms of cultural experiences where clients possess superior knowledge.

CROWN Act

This law passed in 2021 makes it illegal to discriminate based on a person's hair texture and protective hairstyle in employment, public accommodations, housing, credit practices, union membership and state agency practices. It does so by specifying that the term "race" includes ethnic traits historically associated with race, including hair texture and protective hairstyles.

Complaints can be made to the Commission on Human Rights and Opportunities (CHRO) to enforce these rights.
