RE:

As you know, the Department of Children and Families encourages and supports foster parent participation in the planning process for children in their care. This is also supported by state and federal law, which requires that the court ensures that foster parents, pre-adoptive parents and relative caregivers of children in foster care receive notification of any court proceeding that affects the children in their care.

I am writing to let you know that a hearing is scheduled for _____
Enter Date of Hearing:

_____  AM  PM at the _____ Superior Court
Enter Time of Hearing: Enter Name of Court:

for Juvenile Matters concerning your foster child.

As the foster parent, your input and participation in the court process is valued and I hope that you will seriously consider attending the court hearing.

You should feel free to call me or your foster care support worker if you have questions about the court process in general or your foster child's case in particular

Sincerely,
