On 4/2/2020 at approximately 1933 hours, Ofc. Fullana, Sgt. Desso and I were dispatched to 181 Oak Street for an assist parole agency. Dispatch advised responding officers the parole agency was attempting to apprehend a male suspect by the name of Jose Soto (DOB 11/23/92), which they reported they had an arrest warrant for.

Upon this officer's arrival, I met with one of the parole officers who informed me they had an arrest warrant for Jose and were attempting to have him come out of the residence. They also reported he was the suspect in potential robberies and had been known to carries firearms. At that point, I went back to my police cruiser and deployed my department issued rifle to employ as long cover on the residence. One of the parole officers requested this officer go and secure the rear of the residence in case he decided to flee the residence. I then proceeded to the rear side of the residence (also known as the 3 side).

While on the 3 side of the residence, Ofc. Fullana and Sgt. Desso arrived on scene. Ofc. Fullana secured the east side of the residence (also known as the 4 side), and Sgt. Desso spoke with the parole officers in the front of the residence. I could hear them speaking with a female party at the front door and they were attempting to have her exit the residence. I continued to speak with one of the parole officers and listened to the radio from Sgt. Desso. I heard them mention the male party, Jose, was inside the residence and had gone down in the basement and barricaded him down there.

Sgt. Desso called for this officer to come to his position in the front door of the residence to cover down on the front door, which had partial visual view of the basement door he went down. This officer heard multiple parties mention that Jose had made comments about harming individuals if they were to come inside the residence to get him.

This officer continued to hold long cover on the front door, while Ofc. Brouillard pulled up a police cruiser to the front of the residence to act as a barricade for officer safety. The position that appeared to have the safest and clearest view of the basement door, was next to a shrub located in the front of the property. I informed Ofc. Brouillard to pull up the police cruiser right on top of the shrub to give officers the most effective barricade/cover to the front door. Ofc. R. Johnson and I then continued to hold on the front door/basement door while using the police cruiser as cover and a barricade.

Sgt. Desso had requested the response of the Capital Regional Emergency Service Team. Once the team was activated, eventually the armored vehicle came to 181 Oak Street, which replaced Ofc. R. Johnson and this officers' position in the front yard. As the armored vehicle was pulling up to the residence, this officer drove the police cruiser away from the front of the residence. Sgt. Desso ordered this officer to bring the two parole officers to the Nathan Hale School to the Command Post of the incident.

Once the parole officers had gone to the Command Post, this officer acted as an operator for the Capital Region Emergency Service Team and went back to the residence at 181 Oak Street.

Once I drove the parole officers to Nathan Hale School that concluded this officer's involvement as a patrol officer in this matter. From then
