Round 20 Brownfield Funding Recipients Announced

Governor Lamont announced today the Department of Economic and Community Development (DECD) is awarding a total of approximately $20 million in funding under the Brownfield Municipal Grant program. These awards represent the governor's commitment to supporting Connecticut's municipalities and developers in their efforts to remediate and redevelop vacant and blighted brownfield properties across the state.

For more details on specific awards, please view Governor Lamont's announcement.

Please note, DECD's Office of Brownfield Remediation and Development (OBRD) is expecting to announce another round of funding in January 2025, and will be inviting applications for:

- Remediation/Limited-Assessment Grants
- Assessment-Only Grants
- Remediation/Limited-Assessment Loans
- Brownfield Area-wide Revitalization (BAR) Planning Grants

For more details, please visit the OBRD website at www.ctbrownfields.gov.
