About Proposed Regulations: State agencies propose regulations in order to make changes to the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies-Connecticut's version of a state administrative code.

In order to become law, proposed regulations must complete an adoption process that includes approval by the Legislative Regulation Review Committee of the Connecticut General Assembly and posting to the eRegulations System. Learn more about the Regulation-Making Process in Connecticut.

The regulations listed on this page are in various stages of the adoption process. To view the progress of and documents for a specific proposed regulation, select its Tracking Number link.

To view regulations that have become law, select this link to Final Approved Regulations.

Proposed Regulations Prior to March 23, 2015: The text of proposed regulations that started the regulation-making process after July 1, 2013 but before March 23, 2015 can be found on the SOTS Notice of Intent to Adopt Regulations page.

Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies

Sec. 22a-174-13. Variances

(a) Any person who owns or operates any source of air pollutants as defined in section 22a-174-1 may apply to the Commissioner for a variance or a partial variance from one or more of the provisions of these regulations. Applications for a variance shall be submitted on forms furnished or prescribed by the Commissioner and shall supply such information as he requires, including but not limited to,

- (1) information on the nature and location of the facility or process for which such application is made;
- (2) the reasons for which the variance is required, including the economic and technological justifications;
- (3) the type and quantity of emissions that will occur during the period of variance;
- (4) a description of interim control measures to be taken by the source to minimize emissions and the damages occurring therefrom;
- (5) history of any previous environmental litigation between the source and government agencies.

Sec. 22a-174-8. Compliance plans and schedules

(a) All new sources must comply with all regulations as of startup of operations.

(b) (1) Existing sources must comply with sections 22a-174-18(b), 22a-174-18(d), and 22a-174-23(a) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies by June 1, 1972.

(2) Existing sources must comply with sections 22a-174-18(a), 22a-174-18(c), 22a-174-18(e), 22a-174-18(f), 22a-174-19(b) through (f) inclusive, 22a-174-20(a) through (e) inclusive, subdivisions 22a-174-20(f)(1), 22a-174-20(f)(2), 22a-174-20(f)(5), 22a-174-20(f)(6), 22a-174-20(f)(7), 22a-174-20(f)(8), 22a-174-20(f)(9), 22a-174-20(f)(10), 22a-174-21(a) and (b) and 22a-174-22e as expeditiously as practicable.

(3) Sources subject to subdivision 22a-174-20 (f) (4) must submit to the Commissioner a proposed compliance plan and schedule by November 1, 1972, which plan must provide for compliance with appropriate regulations as expeditiously as practicable but not later than April 1, 1975. Sources that do not submit such a plan must be in compliance by June 1, 1973.

(4) Fuel merchants must comply with subdivision 22a-174-19 (a) (2) by September 1, 1972 and fuel users must comply with that section by April 1, 1973.

Regulations in the eRegulations System:

Start with regulations as they existed in the last printed codification of January 2013, and includes the history and text of all amendments since that time.

Finding Historical Regulations

- Secretary of the State maintains copies filed with us pursuant to C.G.S. §§ 4-170 & 4-172.
  - An effective date is helpful if you need us to look something up.
- State Library has copies of the Connecticut Law Journal and most of the supplements to the printed Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.
  - We often work together to find the records you need.
