August 16, 2011

Kevin M. DelGobbo, Chairman
Public Utilities Regulatory Authority
Ten Franklin Square
New Britain, CT 06051

Dear Mr. DelGobbo:

Last month, I was designated by the Secretary of the Office of Policy and Management (OPM), Ben Barnes, to replace Ray Wilson as Chairperson of the Low-Income Energy Advisory Board (LIEAB). As you may know, Mr. Wilson is now working for the newly formed State Department of Energy and Environmental Protection (DEEP) which was created by Public Act 11-80, An Act Concerning the Establishment of the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection and Planning for Connecticut's Energy Future. This public act also makes one minor change to the composition of LIEAB.

The Low-Income Energy Advisory Board was established in 2005 to: (a) advise OPM and the Department of Social Services in the planning, development, implementation and coordination of energy-assistance-related programs and policies and low-income weatherization assistance programs and policies; (b) advise the Department of Public Utility Control (now DEEP) regarding the impact of utility rates and policies; and (c) make recommendations to the General Assembly to ensure affordable access to residential energy services to low-income state residents.

Public Act 11-80 did not change the requirement that you or your designee serve on the board. Currently, Emy Skene serves on the board as your designee. Please contact Pamela Trotman by email at pamela.trotman@ct.gov to confirm that Ms. Skene will continue to serve as your designee or if you would like to serve or appoint a new designee.

I look forward to working with you or your designee on this important endeavor to address energy issues affecting Connecticut's most vulnerable citizens.

Sincerely,

Anne Foley
