Description

Join the Connecticut Equity and Environmental Justice Advisory Council’s Energy & Technology Subcommittee to learn about CREST - Community Renewable Energy Siting Tool. A collaboration of over 25 organizations has advised DEEP and UConn CLEAR on the development of a renewable energy suitability siting map. Community renewable energy siting has been of interest to this subcommittee and we're excited to invite DEEP staff to learn more about the beta version of the tool and open a larger discussion on the tool's utility in environmental justice communities.
