

To Whom It May Concern,

Columbia First Selectman Carmen Vance would like the State of Connecticut to pass legislation allowing municipalities to regulate the use of phosphorous fertilizers and household products containing phosphorus. First Selectman Vance believes that such legislation would give municipalities the tools necessary to keep their lakes and ponds clean.

Sincerely,

Jonathan Luiz

Columbia Town Administrator