

Pervious Pavement Implementation Projects in Connecticut

Major Connecticut Watersheds

Permeable Block Pavers

Photos: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Permeable Block Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Permeable Block Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Plastic Grid Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Grass and Gravel Grid Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Grass Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Prime Publishers Building – Southbury, CT

Grass Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

Prime Publishers Building – Southbury, CT

Permeable Block Pavers

Photos: CT DEP

Bushnell Park – Hartford, CT

Permeable Block Pavers

Photo: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Plastic Grid Pavers

Photos: CT DEP

West Farms Mall Overflow Parking Lot – Farmington, CT

Recycled Tire Pavement

Photos: CT DEP

Hole in the Wall Parking Lot – East Lyme, CT

Pervious Asphalt

Photos: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Pervious Asphalt

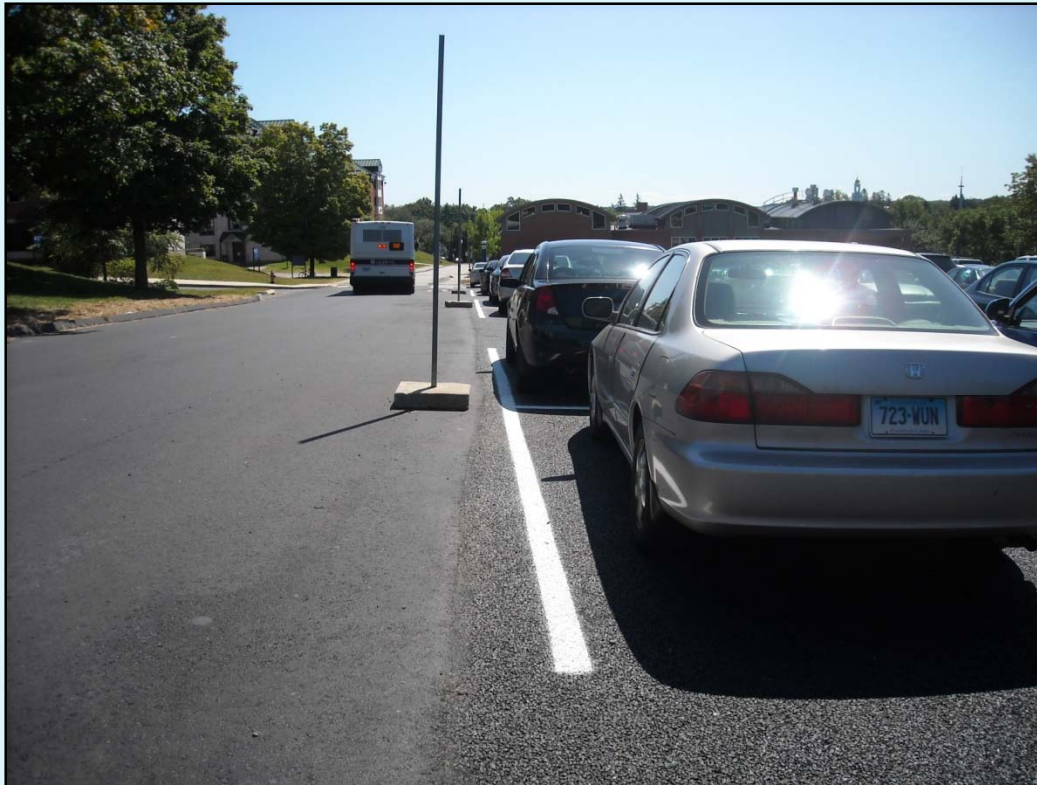

Photo: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Pervious Asphalt

Photo: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Pervious Concrete

Photos: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Pervious Concrete

Photo: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Pervious Concrete

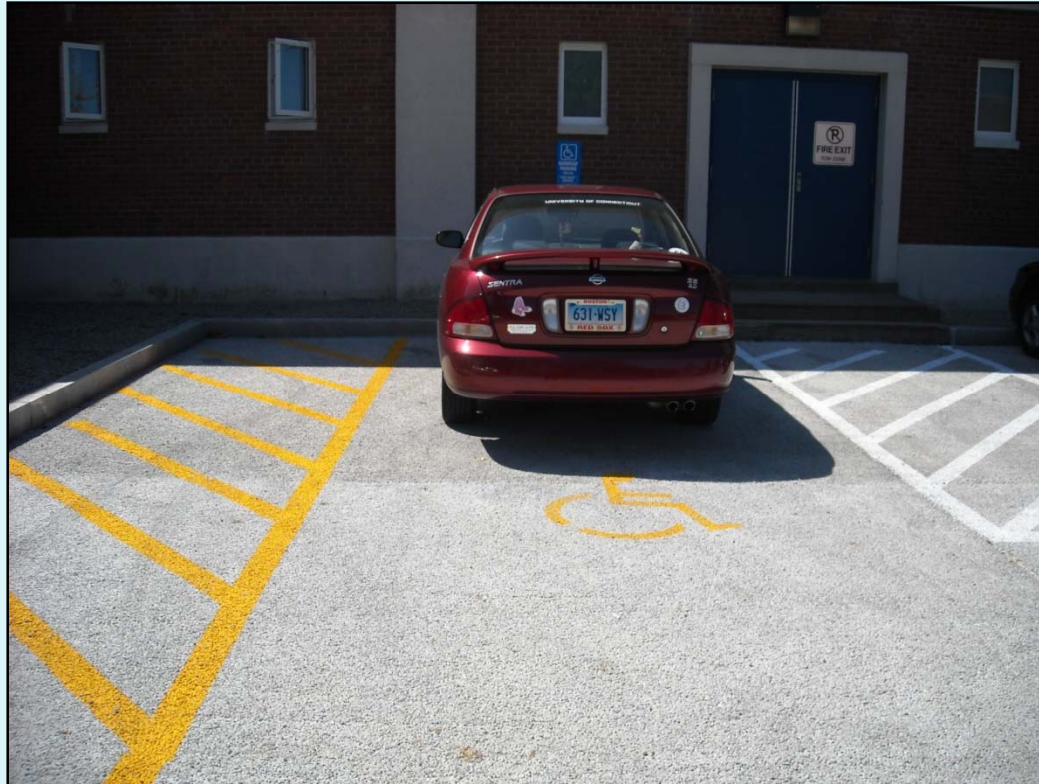

Photo: CT DEP

UConn Storrs Campus – Mansfield, CT

Watershed Management

Program Oversight

MaryAnn Nusom Haverstock – 424-3347

Watershed Managers

Eric Thomas - 424-3548

Susan Peterson – 424-3854

Chris Malik – 424-3959

Low Impact Development Coordinator

Jessica Morgan – 418-5994

Nonpoint Source Implementation

Stan Zaremba – 424-3730

Lakes Management

Chuck Lee – 424- 3716