From: Lori J. Mathieu, Public Health Branch Chief Lori J. Mathieu

Date: February 2, 2024

Subject: BIL Learning Exchange Webinar Series: Addressing Emerging Contaminants in Source Water Using BIL Grants and Forgivable Loans

As part of the BIL Learning Webinar Series, Source Water Collaborative is providing a webinar entitled “Addressing Emerging Contaminants in Source Water Using BIL Grants and Forgivable Loans.” This webinar will be held Thursday, February 8, from 3:00 to 4:30 p.m. EST. It is free and open to the public.

Through the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law (BIL), $10 billion in grant or grant-like funding is being made available for projects that address emerging contaminants in drinking water and/or wastewater. This funding will be administered through EPA’s Drinking Water and Clean Water State Revolving Funds and new Emerging Contaminants in Small or Disadvantaged Communities Grant Program. Attendees of this webinar will learn how new and existing source water protection projects may be supported by this funding opportunity.
