SUBJECT: Hot Weather Alert

In anticipation for significant hot weather, please review your emergency plans, check your check air conditioning systems, generators, and fuel; ensure the completeness of emergency food and other supplies, and as always, check with your local weather channel via television and radio.

Ensure that facility equipment maintenance contracts are current, as well as emergency call list for rental companies (e.g. portable air conditioning units).

These weather conditions can impact cooling systems and overall patient/resident health. Please see the attached recommendations for management of patients/residents during hot weather.
