Requesting a Civil Union Certificate from Town

Individuals who request a copy of a civil union certificate for a ceremony performed between October 1, 2005 and September 30, 2010, will receive a certified copy that contains the following conversion statement: "The persons named on this certificate entered into a civil union on the date recorded. In accordance with C.G.S. §46B-38rr, all civil unions converted to marriages on October 1, 2010, except those that were dissolved, or had dissolution, annulment or legal separation proceedings pending on October 1, 2010."

How To Request a Civil Union Certificate

A certified copy of a civil union certificate may be requested by mail or in person. Complete the Application for a Copy of Civil Union Certificate available on this site and mail it or take it in person to the vital records office of the town or city where the civil union took place, or the town or city of the parties' residence at the time the civil union took place, or to the State Vital Records Office. For expedited processing by VitalChek, please apply on-line at <http://www.vitalchek.com>.

Who Can Request A Certified Copy Of A Civil Union Certificate?

Connecticut civil union certificates are open to the general public. Anyone over 18 years of age may request a copy of any Connecticut Civil Union Certificate. You must provide basic information such as the names of the parties to the civil union, the approximate date of the civil union, and the town in which the civil union took place, so that the proper civil union certificate can be identified. The social security numbers of the civil union partners will not be included on the certified copy issued to any requester other than one of the parties to the civil union.
