ADMINISTRATIVE DISQUALIFICATION HEARING
NOTICE OF DECISION

PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

The Department of Social Services (the "Department") requested an Administrative Disqualification Hearing ("ADH") to seek the disqualification of ██████████ (the "Defendant"), from participating in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program ("SNAP") for twelve (12) months. The Department alleges that the Defendant committed an Intentional Program Violation ("IPV") by trafficking her SNAP benefits. The Department is seeking to recover $355.74 in overpaid SNAP benefits. This is the Defendant's first IPV offense in the SNAP program.

On ██████████ 2023, the Office of Legal Counsel, Regulations, and Administrative Hearings ("OLCRAH") notified the Defendant of the initiation of the ADH process via certified mail delivery. The notification outlined the Defendant's rights in these proceedings. The hearing was scheduled for ██████████ 2023.

The Defendant did not claim the ADH packet that was sent via certified mail.

On ██████████ 2023, OLCRAH notified the Defendant of the ADH hearing via the United States Postal Service.

On [REDACTED], 2023, in accordance with sections 17b-60, 17-61 and 4-176e to 4-189, inclusive, of the Connecticut General Statutes, OLCRAH held an Administrative Disqualification Hearing. The following individuals were present at the hearing:

William Carasquillo, Department's Representative
Carla Hardy, Hearing Officer

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUE

The issue to be decided is whether the Defendant committed an IPV of the SNAP program, is subject to disqualification from program participation for 12 months.

The second issue to be decided is whether the Department's proposal to recoup a $355.74 SNAP overpayment is correct.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The Defendant was not present at the ADH. (Hearing Record)
2. The Defendant is not currently receiving SNAP assistance. Her SNAP closed on [REDACTED] 2023. (Department's Testimony)
3. [REDACTED] is a store located at [REDACTED], Connecticut.
4. On multiple dates, as shown in the table below, the Defendant's Electronic Bank Transfer ("EBT") card was used at [REDACTED], to access SNAP benefits from the Defendant's account.

(Exhibit 3: EBT Transaction History; Hearing Record)

5. On [REDACTED] 2021, [REDACTED], located at [REDACTED], [REDACTED] was charged with trafficking because the EBT transactions conducted at the store established repetitive patterns of unusual, irregular, and inexplicable activity for the type of store. [REDACTED] violated federal SNAP regulations when it participated in trafficking activities with SNAP program recipients. The United States Department of Agriculture Food and Nutrition Service ("FNS") proposed to permanently disqualify [REDACTED] from participating in the SNAP. (Exhibit 4: FNS letter, [REDACTED] 21)
6. On [REDACTED] 2021, the FNS upheld its decision to permanently disqualify [REDACTED] from participating in the SNAP. (Exhibit 4: FNS letter, [REDACTED] 21)
7. Because the FNS found [REDACTED] located at [REDACTED], [REDACTED], guilty of trafficking in SNAP benefits, it forwarded a list of client identification numbers and transactions to the Department for further investigation. (Hearing Record)
8. The Department marked the above transactions as trafficking because they are of high dollar value, end in $.00, $.25, $.50, $.75, $.99 or there are multiple transactions within 24 hours. (Department's Testimony)
9. On [REDACTED] 2023, the Department sent the Defendant a Notice of Prehearing Interview ("W-1448") and a Waiver of Disqualification Hearing ("W-1449") for the SNAP informing her that she could schedule an appointment to discuss the allegation of trafficking and that there: was an IPV that had caused a $355.74 overpayment. The Defendant was given an [REDACTED] 2023, deadline to respond. (Exhibit 2: Notice of Prehearing Interview and Waiver of Disqualification Hearing Notices)
10. The Defendant did not contact the Department regarding the ADH. (Department's Testimony)
11. The Department corrected the overpayment from $355.74 to $329.74. (Hearing Record)
12. The Defendant has no prior IPV's. (Exhibit 7: EDRS Printout Query; Hearing Record)
13. The Department is seeking to disqualify the Defendant from participating in the SNAP for one year and is seeking recovery of $329.74 in overpaid SNAP benefits due to an IPV of trafficking. (Exhibit 1: Notice of Overpayment and Disqualification, [REDACTED]/23; Department's Testimony)

14. The Department did not receive any returned mail that was sent to the Defendant. (Department's Testimony)
15. The issuance of the decision is timely based on Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations Section § 273.16(e)(2)(iv) that within 90 days of the date the household member is notified in writing that a State or local hearing initiated by the State agency has been scheduled, the State agency shall conduct the hearing, arrive at a decision and notify the household member and local agency of the decision. The Department notified the Defendant of the hearing on [REDACTED] 2023; therefore, this decision is due no later than [REDACTED] 2023. (Hearing Record)

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Section 17b-2 of the Connecticut General Statutes authorizes the Commissioner of the Department of Social Services to administer the SNAP program.
2. Section 17b-88 of the Connecticut General Statutes authorizes the Commissioner of the Department of Social Services to recover any public assistance overpayment and take such other action as conforms to federal regulations, including, but not limited to, conducting administrative disqualification hearings.
3. Title 7 of the Code of Federal Regulations ("C.F.R.") Section 273.16(a)(1) provides that the State agency shall be responsible for investigating any case of alleged intentional Program violation and ensuring that appropriate cases are acted upon either through administrative disqualification hearings or referral to a court of appropriate jurisdiction in accordance with the procedures outlined in this section.
4. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e) provides that the State agency shall conduct administrative disqualification hearings for individuals accused of Intentional Program Violation.

The Department has the authority to administer the SNAP program and conduct Administrative Disqualification Hearings.

5. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(3) provides for the advance notice of the hearing. (i) The State agency shall provide written notice to the individual suspected of committing an intentional Program violation at least 30 days in advance of the date a disqualification hearing initiated by the State agency has been scheduled. If mailed, the notice shall be sent either first class mail or certified mail return receipt requested. The notice may also be provided by any other reliable method. If the notice is sent using first-class mail and is returned as undeliverable, the hearing may still be held. (ii) If no proof of receipt is obtained, a timely (as defined in paragraph (e)(4) of this section) showing of nonreceipt by the individual due to circumstances specified by the State agency shall be considered good cause for not appearing at the hearing. Each State agency shall establish the circumstances in which non-receipt constitutes good cause for failure to appear. Such circumstances shall be consistent throughout the State agency. (iii) The notice shall contain at a minimum: (A) The date, time, and place of the hearing; (B) The charge(s) against the individual; (C) A summary of the evidence, and how and where the evidence can be examined; (D) A warning that the decision will be based solely on the information provided by the State agency if the individual fails to appear at the hearing

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(4) provides for the scheduling of the hearing. The time and place of the hearing shall be arranged so that the hearing is accessible to the household member suspected of intentional Program violation. If the household member or its representative cannot be located or fails to appear at a hearing initiated by the State agency without good cause, the hearing shall be conducted without the household member being represented. Even though the household member is not represented, the hearing officer is required to carefully consider the evidence and determine if an intentional Program violation was committed based on clear and convincing evidence. If the household member is found to have committed an intentional Program violation but a hearing official later determines that the household member or representative had good cause for not appearing, the previous decision shall no longer remain valid, and the State agency shall conduct a new hearing. The hearing officer who originally ruled on the case may conduct the new hearing. In instances where good cause for failure to appear is based upon a showing of nonreceipt of the hearing notice as specified in paragraph (e)(3)(ii) of this section, the household member has 30 days after the date of the written notice of the hearing decision to claim good cause for failure to appear. In all other instances, the household member has 10 days from the date of the scheduled hearing to present reasons indicating a good cause for failure to appear. A hearing official must enter the good cause decision into the record.

The Department properly notified the Defendant of the ADH on [REDACTED], 2023, and [REDACTED] 2023.

The defendant was not present at the hearing, nor did she show good cause for failing to appear.

6. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(a)(1) provides that the State agency shall be responsible for investigating any case of alleged intentional Program violation, and ensuring that appropriate cases are acted upon either through administrative disqualification hearings or referral to a court of appropriate jurisdiction in accordance with the procedures outlined in this section. Administrative disqualification procedures or referral for prosecution action should be initiated by the State agency in cases in which the State agency has sufficient documentary evidence to substantiate that an individual has intentionally made one or more acts of Intentional Program Violation as defined in paragraph (c) of this section. If the State agency does not initiate administrative disqualification procedures or refer for prosecution a case involving an overissuance caused by a suspected act of intentional Program violation, the State agency shall take action to collect the overissuance by establishing an inadvertent household error claim against the household in accordance with the procedures in § 273.18. The State agency should conduct administrative disqualification hearings in cases in which the State agency believes the facts of the individual case do not warrant civil or criminal prosecution through the appropriate court system, in cases previously referred for prosecution that were declined by the appropriate legal authority, and in previously referred cases where no action was taken within a reasonable period of time and the referral was formally withdrawn by the State agency. The State agency shall not initiate an administrative disqualification hearing against an accused individual whose case is currently being referred for prosecution or subsequent to any action taken against the accused individual by the prosecutor or court of appropriate jurisdiction if the factual issues of the case arise out of the same or related circumstances. The State agency may initiate administrative disqualification procedures or refer a case for prosecution regardless of the current eligibility of the individual.

The Defendant's case has not been referred for civil or criminal prosecution and the Department correctly initiated administrative disqualification proceedings.

7. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(a)(3) provides that the State agency shall base administrative disqualifications for Intentional Program Violations on the determinations of hearing authorities arrived at through administrative disqualification hearings in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section or on determinations reached by courts of appropriate jurisdiction in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section. However, any State agency has the option of allowing accused individual either to waive their rights to administrative disqualification hearings in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section or to sign disqualification consent agreements for cases of deferred adjudication in accordance with paragraph (h) of this section. Any State agency which chooses either of these options may base administrative disqualifications for Intentional Program Violation on the waived right to an administrative disqualification hearing or on the signed disqualification consent agreement in cases of deferred adjudication.

The Defendant failed to sign and return the administrative disqualification agreement. The Department was correct to hold an administrative disqualification hearing.

8. Title 7 C.F.R. § 271.2 defines trafficking as:

(1) The buying, selling, stealing, or otherwise affecting an exchange of SNAP benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, card numbers and personal identification numbers (PINs), or manual voucher and signature, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone;

(2) The exchange of firearms, ammunition, explosives, or controlled substances, as defined in section 802 of title 21, United States Code, for SNAP benefits;

(3) Purchasing a product with SNAP benefits that has a container requiring a return deposit with the intent of obtaining cash by discarding the product and returning the container for the deposit amount, intentionally discarding the product, and intentionally returning the container for the deposit amount;

(4) Purchasing a product with SNAP benefits with the intent of obtaining cash or consideration other than eligible food by reselling the product, and subsequently intentionally reselling the product purchased with SNAP benefits in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food; or

(5) Intentionally purchasing products originally purchased with SNAP benefits in exchange for cash or consideration other than eligible food.

(6) Attempting to buy, sell, steal, or otherwise affect an exchange of SNAP benefits issued and accessed via Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards, card numbers and personal identification numbers (PINs), or by manual voucher and signatures, for cash or consideration other than eligible food, either directly, indirectly, in complicity or collusion with others, or acting alone.

The hearing record clearly and convincingly established that the Defendant intentionally violated program rules by trafficking her SNAP benefits.

9. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(c) defines an IPV as follows: For purposes of determining through administrative disqualification hearings whether or not a person has committed an IPV, IPV's shall consist of having intentionally: (1) made a false or misleading statement, or misrepresented, concealed or withheld facts, or (2) committed any act that constitutes a violation of the Food Stamp Act, the Food Stamp Program Regulations, or any State statute relating to the use, presentation, transfer, acquisition, receipt, or possession of Food Stamp coupons, authorization cards or reusable documents used as part of an automated benefit delivery system (access device).

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(6) provides that the hearing authority shall base the determination of Intentional Program Violation on clear and convincing evidence which demonstrates that the household member(s) committed, and intended to commit, an Intentional Program Violation.

The Department established with clear and convincing evidence that the Defendant intentionally violated the SNAP regulations violating the SNAP Act, the SNAP Program Regulations, or any State statute relating to the use, presentation, transfer, acquisition, receipt, or possession of SNAP and correctly determined that the Defendant committed an IPV.

10. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(e)(8)(i) provides that if the hearing authority rules that the individual has committed an intentional program violation, the household member must be disqualified in accordance with the disqualification periods and procedure in paragraph (b) of this section. The same act of intention Program violation repeated over a period must not be separated so that separate penalties can be imposed.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(b)(1)(i) provides that individuals found to have committed an intentional program violation either through an administrative disqualification hearing or by a Federal, State or local court, or who have signed either a waiver of right to an administrative disqualification hearing or a disqualification consent agreement in cases referred for prosecution, shall be ineligible to participate in the Program; for a period of twelve months for the first intentional Program violation, except as provided under paragraphs (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(4), and (b)(5) of this section.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(b)(5) provides for disqualification penalties and states that individuals found to have committed an IPV shall be ineligible to participate in the program for a period of twelve months for the first IPV, except as provided under paragraphs (b)(2), (b)(3), (b)(4), and (b)(5) of this section.

The Department is correct to seek the Defendant's disqualification from participating in the SNAP program for twelve months.

11. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.16(b)(12) provides that even though the individual is disqualified, the household, as defined in § 273.1, is responsible for making restitution for any overpayment. All IPV claims must be established and collected in accordance with the procedures set forth in § 273.18.
12. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(a)(1)(i) provides a recipient claim is an amount owed because of benefits that are overpaid.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(a)(2) provides this claim is a Federal debt subject to this and other regulations governing Federal debts. The State agency must establish and collect any claim by following these regulations.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 271.2 provides that overissuance means the amount by which benefits issued to a household exceeds the amount it was eligible to receive.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(b) provides for types of claims. There are three types of claims: (1) Intentional Program violation (IPV) any claim for an overpayment or trafficking resulting from an individual committing an IPV. (2) Inadvertent household error (“IHE”) defined as any claim for an overpayment resulting from a misunderstanding or unintended error on the part of the household; (3) Agency error (“AE”) defined as any claim for an overpayment caused by an action or failure to take action by the State agency.

The Department correctly determined the Defendant trafficked her SNAP benefits between [REDACTED] 2020, through [REDACTED], 2020.

13. Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(c)(2) provides for calculating the claim amount from trafficking-related claims. Claims arising from trafficking-related offenses will be the value of the trafficked benefits as determined by:

- (i) The individual’s admission;
- (ii) Adjudication; or
- (iii) The documentation that forms the basis for the trafficking determination.

Title 7 C.F.R. § 273.18(c)(1)(ii) provides for the actual steps in calculating a claim. (A) determine the correct amount of benefits for each month that a household received an overpayment. (C) subtract the correct amount of benefits actually received. The answer is the amount of the overpayment.

The hearing record reflects that the Defendant trafficked $329.74 in SNAP benefits.

The Department incorrectly proposed a SNAP overpayment claim for $355.74.

The Department acknowledged that the correct overpayment claim is $329.74.

DECISION

The Defendant is GUILTY of committing a first intentional program violation in the SNAP. The Department’s request to disqualify the Defendant from the SNAP is GRANTED. The Defendant is disqualified from the SNAP program for a period of twelve months and must make restitution of $329.74.

ORDER

1. The Department shall rescind the $355.74 overpayment notice.

2. The Department shall issue a new notice informing the Defendant that she must make restitution of $329.74.
3. Compliance with this order shall be forwarded to the undersigned no later than [REDACTED] 2023.
