State of CT Dept. of Consumer Protection	Maintains a listing of residential care facilities in the State of Connecticut. Residential Care Homes (RCH) is a housing option with integrated supports which allow individuals to keep their waived services. There are 98 RCH in the state with a total capacity of approximately 2710 licensed beds. Individuals need to be determined disabled, have Medicaid and receive SSDI/SSI, which may cover the cost in full leaving the individual a monthly allotment for spending. If the individual works, they may have to cover part of the cost out of pocket. RCH's offer housekeeping, laundry, 3 meals a day, 24-hour staffing, emergency call systems, recreation, and some assistance with medication management and health care coordination. If an individual requires nursing or home health aide support, this can be added under Medicaid coverage or possibly through a program such as Community First Choice. Individuals are free to come and go as they please but have staff available if needed. There are some private rooms, and semi-private rooms.	n/a	n/a	https://portal.ct.gov/DCP/Licensing/Generate-a-Roster-of-Licenses-Permits-Registrations
