18/20 Trinity Street, Hartford

The 18/20 Trinity Street Property is part of the State's Historic Capitol District. It was formerly the Orient Insurance Company Building, constructed in 1905 designed by Davis & Brooks in grand Beaux-Arts style. It is just around the corner from Elm Street, which by the 1920's became known as Insurance Row, after four more companies built offices near the Capitol.

The State of Connecticut purchased this building in 1977 and it is office space to multiple state agencies. The 18/20 Trinity building has multiple floors is approximately 84,637 sq. ft. of combined space.
