

Betting on Your Future

What parents, teens & young adults need to know about sports betting

Sponsored by the Region 1 Gambling Awareness Team

Monday, March 20th 7:00-8:30 PM on Zoom

Many parents have conversations about drugs and alcohol, but sports betting isn't a topic you might think to discuss. With the legalization of online sports betting in Connecticut, placing a bet is easier than ever, so kids need to understand the impacts and risks.

Join us to learn:

- What sports betting is
- How the advertising affects kids and its influence on teen use.
- The impact on the brain
- How it's connected to mental health
