AN INTRODUCTION TO

The Food System Policy Division

CITY OF NEW HAVEN, CT

Introduction to the Division

Latha Swamy

The Division Timeline

Early 2020 Mid 2020 Mid 2016 Late 2018 Late 2020 Late 2021 2012-16 FSPD New Haven Lexi Basile FSPD Latha Swamy Kimberly Kimberly Food Policy established hired as Acosta begins secures its Acosta hired as hired as working with first grants Council Analyst (funded Director. Analyst (USDA as a new advocates for the FSPD as a Division in Position is by Kendall funded) and dedicated food Health & moved under part-time Lexi Basile Foundation) City's General Admin policy role in Human begins as the Funds Services city Admin (CARES Act funded) government and secures funding from Kendall Foundation

OUR TEAM

Latha Swamy

Kimberly Acosta

Lexi Basile

Liz Jacob

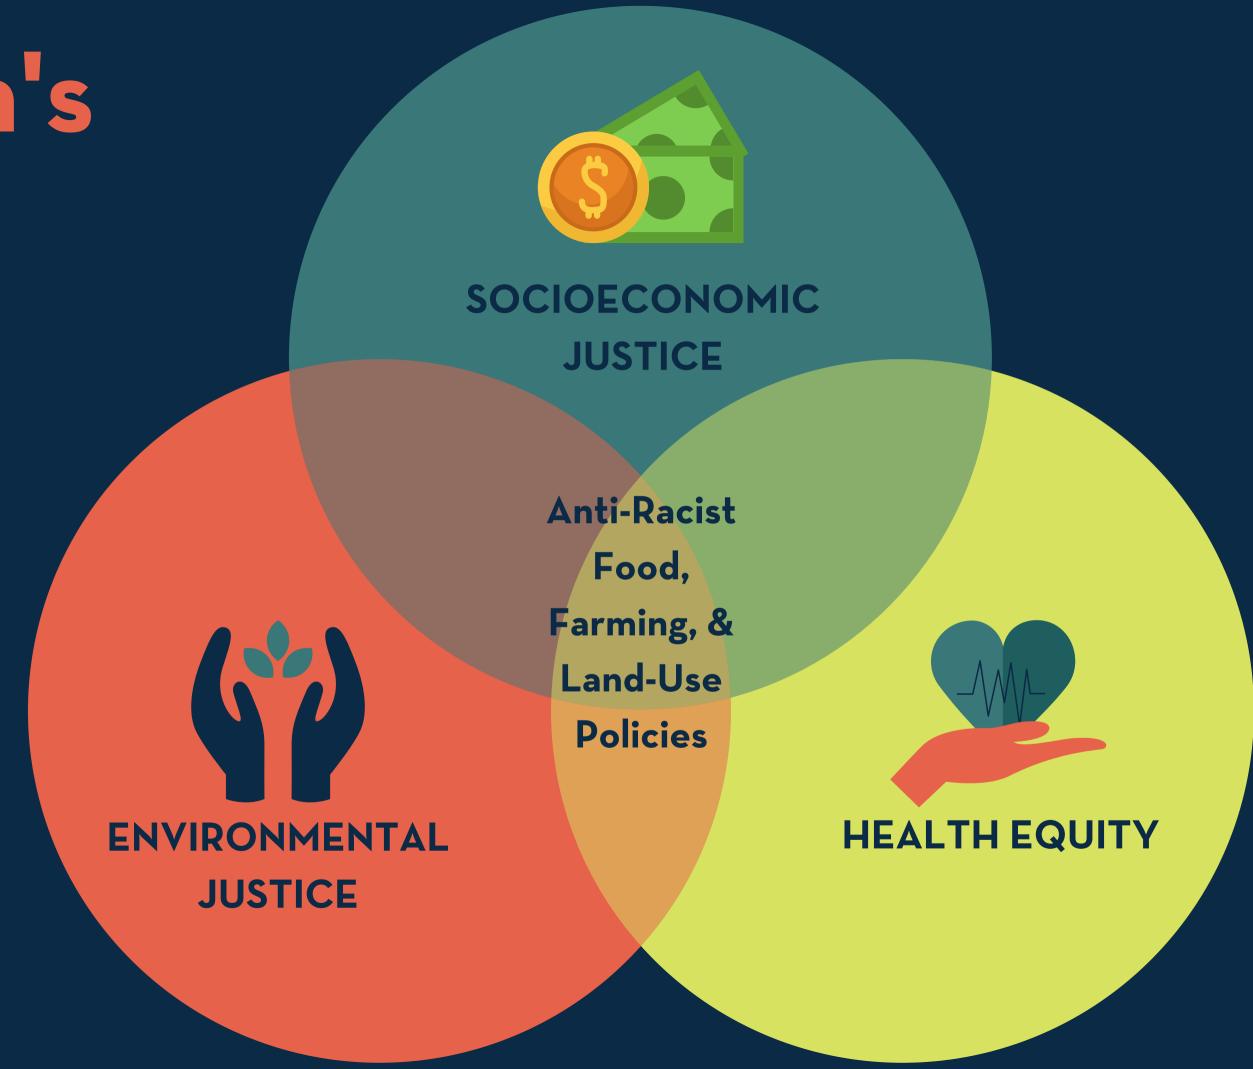

Director

Food Policy Analyst

Food Policy Analyst

Project Coordinator

The Division's
Operating Framework

Improve Community Conditions

IMPACT

Laws, policies, and regulations that create community conditions supporting health for all people.

INDIVIDUAL IMPACT

upstream

Addressing Individuals Social Needs

midstream

Social workers, community health workers, and/or community-based organizations providing direct support/assistance to meet social needs

The Division's Approach

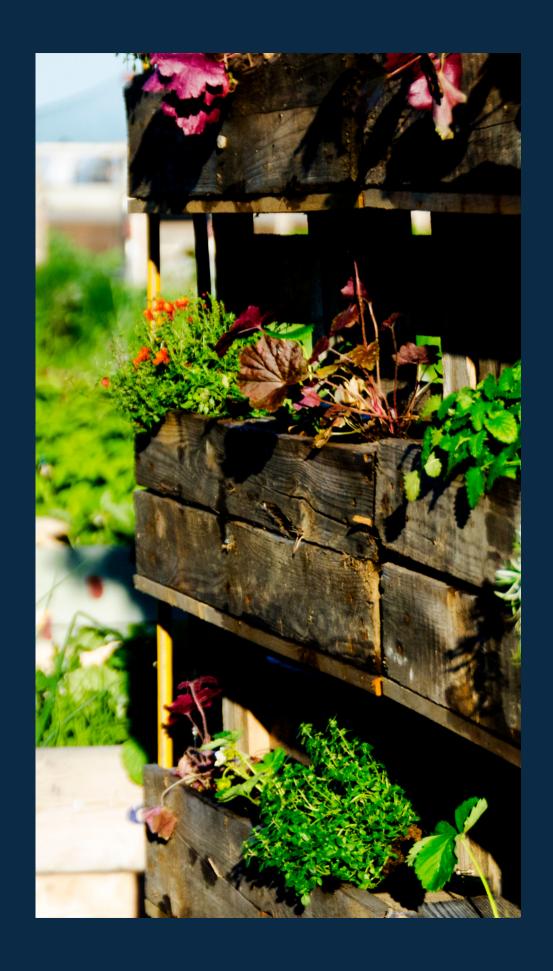

downstream

The Division's Values

Authenticity ———

Transparency ———

Accountability -

Collaborative Partnerships & Networks

INTERNATIONAL

Milan Urban Food Policy Pact
Glasgow Food & Climate Declaration
ICLEI - Local Governments for Sustainability

NATIONAL

US Conference of Mayors
US Federal Food Policy Partnership

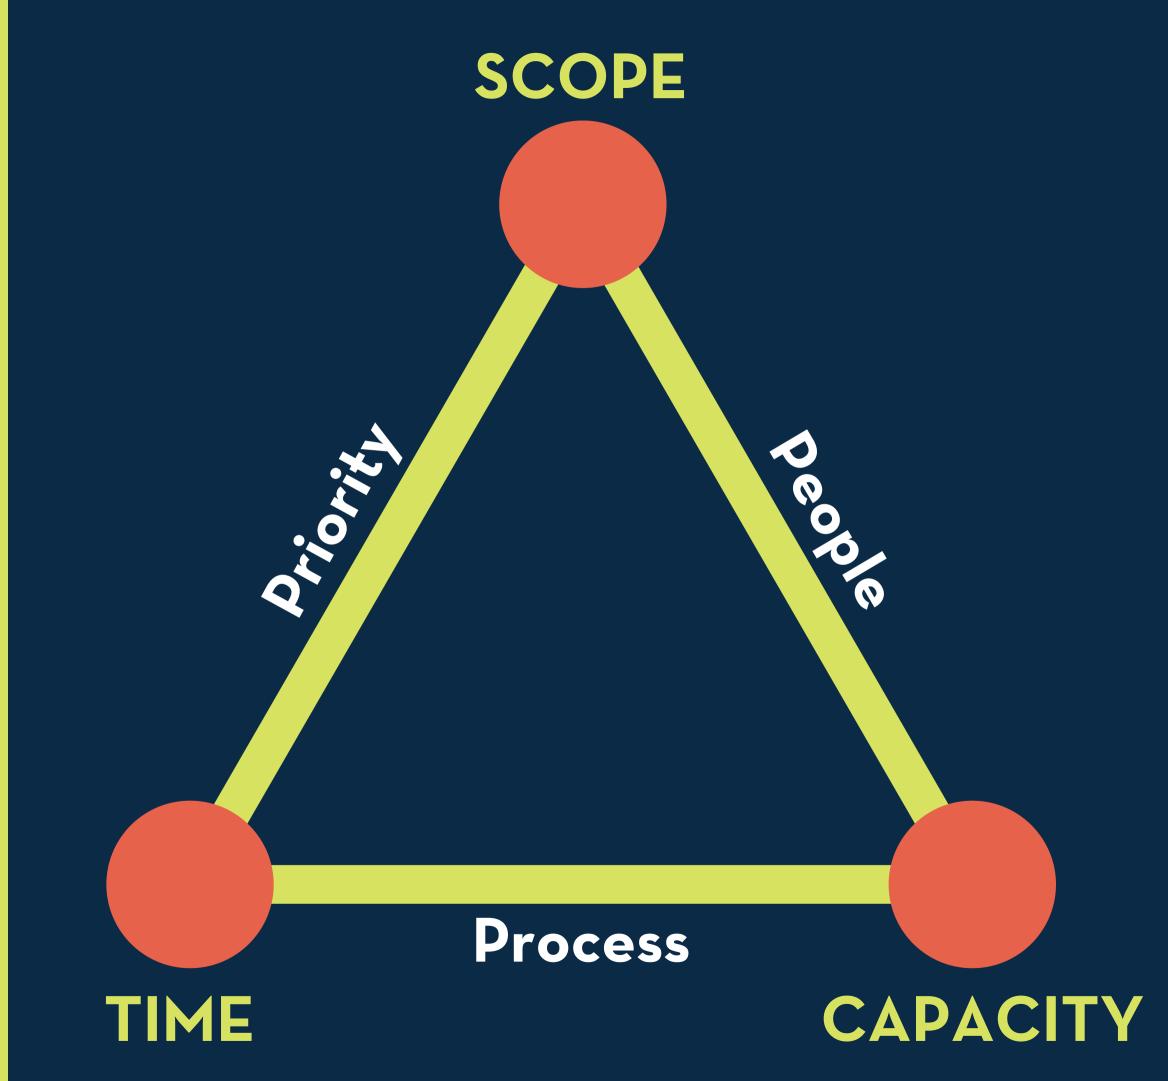

STATE/REGIONAL

Working Lands Alliance
CT Food System Alliance
CT Farm to School Collaborative
Senator Murphy's Land Conservation Council
CT Dept of Agriculture DEI Working Group
Farm to Institution New England

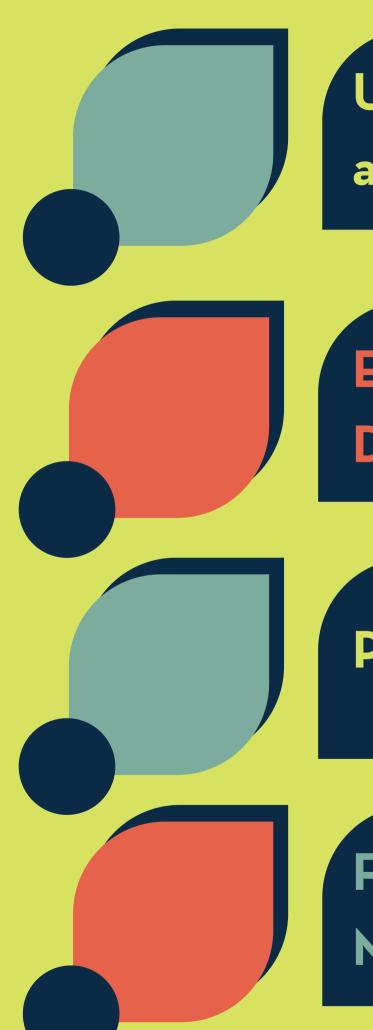

LOCAL

Witnesses to Hunger,
Coordinated Food
Assistance Network
(CFAN), BOE Food Service
Task Force, food system
non-profits, businesses,
unaffiliated residents

The Division's Capacity and Scope

Portfolio of Work

Urban Agriculture Growth and Development

Equitable Food-Oriented Development (EFOD)

Population Health Policies

Food Systems Data and Mapping

Urban Agriculture Growth & Development

Kimberly Acosta

The Urban Agriculture Master Plan

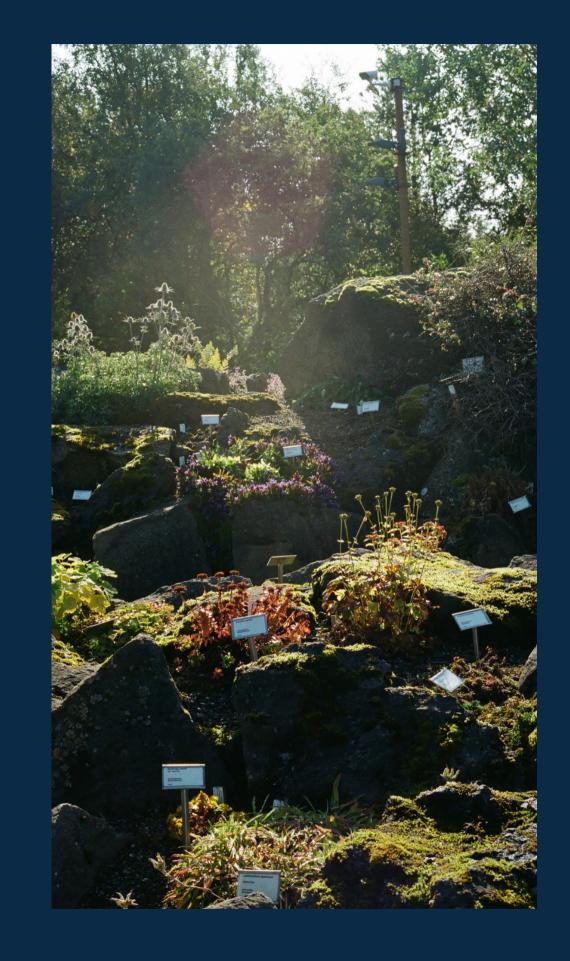

Guiding Values

Community Involvement & Ownership

Equity

Protection Against
Gentrification
& Displacement

The Thematic Pathways

Equitable & Enabling Policy Environment

Socioeconomic Viability

Mapping Pathways to Education, Jobs, and Resources

Our Goals

Monitoring & Evaluation

Seattle FAP MUFPP MF 品 RUAF CRFS FSPD + CARE MSU MREFS

What's next?

2023
Year of Action!

Shared knowledge and understanding

Where are we?

Where could we be?

Where do we want to be?

Stay tuned!

We're closer to launching our new comms strategy!

Website

foodpolicy.newhavenct.gov

Social Media

@NHVfoodpolicy

Email

Latha Swamy

Iswamy@newhavenct.gov

Kimberly Acosta

kacosta@newhavenct.gov

Lexi Basile

abasile@newhavenct.gov