Applicant Legal Name: _____

WORKERS COMPENSATION COVERAGE

Section 31-286a(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes states that “[o]n and after October 1, 1986, no state department, board or agency may renew a license or permit to operate a business in this state unless the applicant first presents sufficient evidence of current compliance with the workers’ compensation insurance coverage requirements of section 31-284.”

Section 31-286a(d) of the Connecticut General Statutes states, in part, that “[f]or purposes of this section, ‘sufficient evidence’ means (1) a certificate of self-insurance issued by an administrative law judge pursuant to section 31-284, (2) a certificate of compliance issued by the Insurance Commissioner pursuant to section 31-286, [or] (3) a certificate of insurance issued by any stock or mutual insurance company or mutual association authorized to write workers’ compensation insurance in this state or its agent”

If you have any questions about how Section 31-286a applies to you, please direct them to your attorney or to the Workers’ Compensation Commission at (860) 493-1500.
