Individual Application for Approval of Official or Senior Executive Officer

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 2 hours for biographical information. This estimate includes time to gather and maintain data in the required form, to review instructions, and to complete the information collection. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Office of Examination and Insurance, National Credit

Union Administration, 1775 Duke Street, Alexandria, Virginia 22314 and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project, Washington, DC 20503. An organization or a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

General Information and Instructions

This Individual Application for Approval of Official or Senior Executive Officer (application) is used by individuals in conjunction with other corporate filings to the appropriate regulatory agency. This report is not a stand alone document.

Preparation

Use of this application is not mandatory. Alternative formats, if used, however, must provide all requested information, including the certification of correctness and that the Privacy Act Notice has been read. All questions must be answered with complete and accurate information that is subject to verification. If the answer is "none," "not applicable," or "unknown," so state. Answers of "unknown" should be explained. The questions are not intended to duplicate information supplied on another form or in an exhibit; a cross reference to the information is acceptable. If this application is used, questions should be answered in the space provided. Use additional sheets as necessary. If the application is not complete, the Regional Director may either request additional information or return the application. If you are a foreign national or a United States citizen who currently resides in a foreign country, additional information will be necessary.

If an applicant has been convicted of any criminal offense involving dishonesty, breach of trust, or money laundering, or has agreed to enter into a pretrial diversion or similar program in connection with a prosecution of such offense (12 U.S.C. § 1785), the applicant must obtain approval from the NCUA before being employed in or becoming an institution affiliated party with a federally insured credit union.

Each applicant must report promptly any material change in the biographical information and/or financial condition that occurs during the review period for this application.

6. Additional Information

Present any other information you believe is important to evaluate your filing. If you are involved in the organization of a new institution, discuss your specific role.

Privacy Act Notice

A copy of this document is provided to the NCUA as required under various statutes and implementing regulation(s). To the extent that it contains personal and financial information about persons, the information may be subject to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. § 552a) which provides safeguards for personal information. The NCUA may, at its discretion, disclose any or all of the information obtained concerning you to other regulatory agencies or other law enforcement or governmental agencies, in connection with the investigation of a possible violation of any federal or state statute or when such release is determined to be in the best interest of the appropriate regulatory agency and consistent with the public interest and applicable law. The NCUA may obtain information about you from any and all sources without limitation. These documents are considered confidential and generally are exempt from public disclosure under the authority of 5 U.S.C. § 552, relating to a personnel, medical, or similar record, including a financial record, or any portion thereof, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

I understand the NCUA may conduct extensive checks into my background, experience, and related matters in conjunction with my application or filing. I certify that the information contained in the biographical report and/or financial report has been carefully examined by me and is true, correct, and complete.

I also certify that I read the Privacy Act Notice provided in the attached Credit Report and Background Investigation Authorization. I further certify that the information provided in this application has been carefully examined by me and is correct, complete, and made in good faith. Any misrepresentation or omission of a material fact constitutes fraud in the inducement and may subject me to legal sanctions provided by 18 U.S.C. §1001 and §1006.

I understand that the NCUA may disapprove any applicant they determine whose employment or affiliation with the credit union is not in the best interest of the membership of the credit union or of the public.

CREDIT REPORT AND BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION AUTHORIZATION

The National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) may evaluate the competence, experience, character, and integrity of any individual who is to serve as an official, employee, or committee member of a newly chartered or troubled federally insured credit union. This is in accordance with section 212 of the Federal Credit Union Act (12 USC §1790a).

NCUA may disapprove any individual whose employment it believes will not be in the best interest of the credit union or of the public. To assist in the evaluation process, NCUA may obtain and review an individual's credit report. NCUA may also verify information contained in this application and, if deemed necessary, may also conduct an investigation into my background.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE

The Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-579) requires that you be advised as to the legal authority, purpose and uses of the information solicited by this form. Pursuant to Sections 104, 205(d), and 212 of the Federal Credit Union Act, the information in this form is requested for the purpose of completing the investigation required for a new federal credit union or proposed officials of a credit union declared to be in a troubled condition status. The information in this form is for use in determining the competence, experience, character and integrity of the applicant. NCUA may conduct a more involved background check as part of the approval process. You will be notified if we need to resolve a concern after concluding the background check. This form may be disclosed to any of the following sources: a congressional office in response to your inquiry to that office; an appropriate federal, state, or local authority in the investigation or enforcement of a statute or regulation; or employees of a federal agency for audit purposes. Failure to complete this form or omission of any item of information, except for disclosure of your social security number, may result in a delay in the processing of this application. In accordance with Section 792.68 of NCUA's regulations, you are not required to furnish your social security number on this form. Your social security number, if voluntarily provided, will be used to more easily verify the information required by this form. No penalty will result to you as a senior executive officer or as a compensated or volunteer official or to the credit union if you do not provide your social security number.
