Compendium Program: Artists In Residence-Community Partners in Action (CPA)

Gender Specific for: BOTH

Description:

Accomplished artists provide inmates with an introduction to the basic principles of fine art. Volunteer Artists-In-Residence within correctional institutions bring art behind bars and serve to broaden inmates' abilities to express themselves by developing talents or skills in drawing, painting, music and creative writing. Inmate artwork is collected annually by a Prison Art Program Curator from Hartford's Community Partners in Action (CPA) which operates this service solely through the support of grants from local foundations, corporations and the Connecticut Commission on the Arts. This art collection is arranged for exhibition in community spaces across the state. The CPA also publishes an annual journal of arts in correction serving to bring creative writing, poetry and visual art produced by inmates to the broader community.

Compendium Program: H.O.N.O.R Program

Gender Specific for:MALE

Description:

Honesty, Ownership, Nobility, Obligation, Respect. Our mission is to foster a therapeutic environment where incarcerated people can find a space, tools, resources, and education allowing them to recognize and appreciate their personal development and affirm their rehabilitation. Our vision is to create programs thought and co-facilitated by incarcerated people seeking self-improvement, positive change, and transformation of self. The Cheshire C.I. H.O.N.O.R program implements collaborative community structure to establish order and allow all participants in the program to experience how they can contribute to a community, to be a leader, and deal with issues in positive and a civilized manner. This creates a smoother transition for all incarcerated people back into society and reduces the likelihood of recidivism.

Compendium Program: The Douglass Project

Gender Specific for:BOTH

Description:

The Douglass Project offers a multi-state Prison Visitation Program that enables community members around the country to visit local correctional facilities and engage in open, face-to-face conversations with incarcerated people. These unique encounters will spur understanding and empathy—for both visitors and prisoners—that will, in turn, drive meaningful personal and systemic change.

Cohorts of approximately 10-20 outsiders per visit will visit correctional facilities and engage in face-to-face conversations with a same sized group of incarcerated adults. The conversations are facilitated by Douglass Project staff using proven tools and techniques that encourage respectful sharing and honest and dignified discussion. Cohorts of outside participants can join individually or as an affiliated group.
