Child Support Modification Request (Inmate) Revised July 2006

- While you are incarcerated your child support order continues to run at its current rate, unless changed by the court.
- You are entitled to request that your order be reviewed for a possible change in the weekly amount.
- Your present income and any substantial assets will be used to determine the amount of child support.
- The court will not reduce a child support order if the inmate is incarcerated for an offense against the child or the custodial parent.
- If your income is less than $50 per week you may be exempt from paying child support.
