The records of the Department of Transportation (Department) indicate that you are the holder of Household Goods Carrier Certificate No. HG514. The records of the department further indicate that you are in violation of the following Connecticut General Statutes (CGS) and/or Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies (RCSA) as amended:

- CGS, Section 13b-392 (Formerly Sec. 16-286): Considerations for granting certificate: suitability.
- CGS, Section 13b-410c(b) (Formerly Sec. 16-288): Intrastate household goods carrier certificate. Intrastate motor contract carrier permit. Application. Fee. Regulations re annual fee for filing proof of insurance.
- CGS, Section 13b-410 (Formerly Sec. 16-304): Jurisdiction of Commissioner. Penalties.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F22: Identification stamp.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F23: Application for identification stamps.
- RCSA, Section 16-304-F24: List of vehicles operated.

The alleged incident at question violates the terms of the certificate which requires the certificate holder to comply with all pertinent motor vehicle laws and other statutes, and/or rules, regulations, and orders of the department.

More specifically, on February 14, 2023, the department completed an internal review of all 2023 cab card renewals for active household goods carrier certificates. The Regulatory and Compliance Unit found no record of receiving a renewal application or payment for this certificate. The Regulatory and Compliance Unit made multiple attempts to contact the certificate holder during the renewal period and was unsuccessful. After investigating the alleged incident, the department has determined that this certificate is out of compliance, and the investigation findings give the department cause to challenge the suitability of the management for this certificate.

As a result, you are subject to a hearing and potential penalties pursuant to CGS 13b-410 and 13b-414. Your certificate is also subject to a possible revocation pursuant to CGS 13b-407.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statute Section 4-182, as amended, you are hereby directed to appear at a telephone citation hearing on May 16, 2023, at 10:00 AM to afford you an opportunity to show cause as to why this certificate should not be revoked, suspended and/or a civil penalty imposed for failure to comply with the applicable provisions of the Connecticut General Statutes and Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies, as stated above.
