Dear Certificate Holder:

The Department of Transportation (Department) records indicate that your business entity held the Household Goods Carrier Certificate listed above. You are receiving this notice because the Department is revoking this certificate. The revocation is required because the business entity's authority on file with the Connecticut Secretary of State no longer exists. Therefore, the certificate does not have an owner responsible for its operation.

The Department recently completed an internal review of all 2024 cab card renewals for active household goods carrier certificates. The Regulatory and Compliance Unit found no record of receiving a renewal application or payment for this certificate and discovered that the state had revoked the Business Authority. The Regulatory and Compliance Unit made multiple attempts to contact the certificate holder during renewal but was unsuccessful. As a result of the certificate holder's lack of action, this household goods carrier certificate is revoked as of the date on this letter.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please call Chris Russell, License and Applications Specialist, at 860-594-2875. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

The Regulatory & Compliance Unit
