NOTIFICATION OF TERMINATION OF COMMISSIONER'S ORDER AUTHORIZING ALTERNATIVE COVID-19 VACCINE ADMINISTRATORS

In accord with Special Act 22-1, the Commissioner of Public Health's authority under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 19a-131f to authorize qualified persons to administer COVID-19 vaccinations during the public health emergency expires on April 15, 2022. The Commissioner's order of December 7, 2020, providing this authorization to specific professions will terminate on that date.

Professionals authorized under the Commissioner's order with the exception of dental hygienists may continue to administer COVID-19 vaccinations in accord with declarations issued by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services under the federal Public Readiness and Emergency Preparedness Act (PREP Act). For more information on how work under the PREP Act, see Expanding the COVID-19 vaccination workforce.
