Instructions for Completing Schedule CT-1040WH

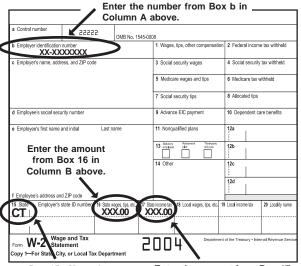

Line 1 — Number of W-2s, W-2Gs, and 1099s. Enter the total number of W-2s, W-2Gs, and 1099s for the 2004 taxable year showing Connecticut income tax withheld that you are reporting on this schedule (if you are filing a joint return, include your spouse's W-2s, W-2Gs, and 1099s). Verify that Box 15 of each W-2 is Connecticut income tax withheld. Do not include W-2s, W-2Gs, or 1099s for other states or the IRS. See sample W-2 at right.

Line 2 — Column A - W-2, W-2G, and 1099 Identification Information. Enter in Column A, the nine-digit Employer Identification Number of each federal Form W-2 (located in Box b of federal Form W-2). For each 1099, enter the payer's nine-digit Federal Identification Number. For unemployment compensation, this number is located directly below the address for the Department of Labor. If the number is unclear or missing, contact your employer or payer.

Column B - Connecticut Wages, Tips, etc. - Enter in Column B the amount of Connecticut wages, tips, etc. (located in Box 16 of federal Form W-2).

Column C - Connecticut Income Tax Withheld. Enter in Column C, the amount of Connecticut income tax withholding as shown on each federal Form W-2, W-2G, or 1099 (from Form W-2, Box 17; Form W-2G, Box 14; Form 1099-R, Box 10; Form 1099-MISC, Box 16; or Form UC-1099G, Box 5.)

Line 3 — Total Connecticut Income Tax Withheld (reported above). Add the amounts in Line 2, Column C, and enter the total here.

Box 15 - Must show CT to be claimed as Connecticut Withholding. Enter the amount from Box 17 (in whole dollars) in Column C above.

Attach Schedule CT-1040WH to the back of Form CT-1040EZ, Form CT-1040, Form CT-1040NR/PY, or Form CT-1040X. If you have additional federal Forms W-2, W-2G, and 1099, you must create an identical schedule and attach it to the back of your Connecticut income tax return.
