Line Instructions

Line 2: If the conveyed property is located in more than one municipality, complete a tax return for each town in which the property is located. Use Form AU-263, Real Estate Conveyance Tax Allocation Worksheet, to allocate the consideration to each municipality.

Line 3 and Line 6: Check the box if there are more than two grantors or, if the grantor is a partnership, S corporation, LLC, estate or trust you must complete and attach OP-236 Schedule A - Grantors. Provide the names, addresses, and Taxpayer Identification Numbers for each partner, shareholder, member, or beneficiary. If a partner, shareholder, member, or beneficiary of the grantor is a limited liability company (LLC) or a qualified subchapter S corporation (QSS), enter the name of such entity, its address and tax identification number.

Lines 4, 5, and 10: Grantor or Grantee's Address: Enter the address where the grantor or grantee will receive mail after the conveyance is complete. Do not enter the address of the property being conveyed as the grantor's address unless the grantor will continue receiving mail at this address.

Lines 4, 5, and 10: Taxpayer Identification Number: A Taxpayer Identification Number is required for each grantor or grantee name listed on the deed, instrument, or writing. The Taxpayer Identification Number may be a Social Security Number (SSN) or Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN). Indicate by checking the appropriate box whether you have entered an SSN or FEIN. This return is incomplete if an SSN or FEIN is not entered, and the processing of your return will be delayed. If there are more than two grantors/sellers, complete and attach OP-236 Schedule A - Grantors, Supplemental Information for Connecticut Real Estate Conveyance Tax Return, or more than one grantee/buyer, complete OP-236 Schedule B - Grantees, Supplemental Information for Connecticut Real Estate Conveyance Tax Return, and provide all the required information.

Line 7: If more than one deed was used to complete this sale or transfer, check this box. See Line 16a and Line 16b instructions.

Line 9: If you check this box, you must complete and attach OP-236 Schedule B - Grantees. Provide the names, addresses, and Taxpayer Identification Numbers for each partner, shareholder, member, or beneficiary. If a partner, shareholder, member, or beneficiary of the grantee is a limited liability company (LLC) or a qualified subchapter S corporation (QSS), enter the name of such entity, its address and tax identification number.

Line 14: Conveyances for no consideration or less than adequate consideration may be subject to federal or Connecticut gift tax, or both. Consideration includes money or anything of value paid or transferred directly or indirectly whether or not expressed in the deed, instrument, or other writing. By way of example and not of limitation, consideration includes the amount of any liability assumed and the amount of any liability to which the property is subject.

Exempt Conveyances: If an exemption is claimed and no exemption code is entered, the return is incomplete and cannot be accepted by the town clerk. See Types of Exempt Conveyances, on Page 3.

Lines 15 through 20: Round all amounts to the nearest whole dollar.

Line 15: Unimproved land is real property that at the time of conveyance has no buildings, structures, or other physical improvements (including those under construction) to the property. Unimproved land includes land designated as farm, forest, or open space land.

Land designated as farm land means property classified as farm land under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 12-107c, land designated as forest land means land classified as forest land under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 12-107d, and land designated as open space land means land classified as open space land under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 12-107e.

Physical improvements include but are not limited to underground drainage improvements; parking lots; paved roads; recreational or athletic facilities such as baseball fields or golf courses; and functioning underground tanks.

Line 16: Enter the total consideration for the residential dwelling.

Residential dwelling means a single family dwelling including a condominium unit or a cooperative unit whether or not owner-occupied. Whether property is residential or nonresidential depends on the use to which the property has been devoted by the grantor. If a portion of the property has been used for residential purposes and the remainder has been used for nonresidential purposes, the use to which a preponderance of the square footage has been devoted is the use to which the property is deemed to have been devoted.

Lines 16a and 16b: If the total consideration for a residential estate is $800,000 or less, enter the amount on Line 16a. If the total consideration is greater than $800,000 and the sale or transfer is completed in one deed, enter $800,000 on Line 16a and the balance on Line 16b. If the sale or transfer of a residential estate is completed using more than one deed and consideration is split among those deeds, the tax must be computed on the total consideration. The consideration and the $800,000 threshold must be allocated based on the ratio of the consideration received by each grantor to the total consideration received for the residential estate. Under no circumstances should there be any difference in the total tax paid whether computed on one or multiple deeds.

Line 17: Residential property other than residential dwelling means real property that, at the time of conveyance, has buildings and structures (including those under construction) on the property used for residential housing. This includes apartment buildings, duplexes, nursing homes, and other multi-unit properties, whether or not the owner resides on the premises, but does not include hotels. It also includes real property that, at the time of its conveyance, does not have buildings and structures (including those under construction) but that has other physical improvements, as defined in Line 15 above, provided the real property is an approved residential building lot.

Line 18: Nonresidential property other than unimproved land means real property that at the time of conveyance is used for any purpose other than residential use, but does not include unimproved land as defined in Line 15, above.

Line 19: Property conveyed by a Delinquent Mortgagor: If the instrument conveys property on which mortgage payments have been delinquent for not less than six months to a corporation that is a financial institution or to a subsidiary of the corporation, which institution or subsidiary holds the delinquent mortgage on the property, enter the amount of the unpaid mortgage indebtedness plus unpaid accrued interest.

Financial institution means a corporation that is a bank, bank and trust company, trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, or credit union whether organized under the laws of this or any other State of the United States or the laws of the United States.
