For estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2020, but before January 1, 2021, no Connecticut estate tax is due from a decedent's estate if the Connecticut taxable estate is $5.1 million or less. For estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2021, but before January 1, 2022, no Connecticut estate tax is due from a decedent's estate if the Connecticut taxable estate is $7.1 million or less.

I represent that no Connecticut estate tax will be due from the decedent's estate. By completing this section and filing it in the Probate District having jurisdiction over the decedent's estate, I am requesting a six-month extension of time to file Form CT-706 NT, Connecticut Estate Tax Return (for Nontaxable Estates).

I acknowledge that this extension will not avoid any interest or penalties applicable to the estate in the event that the estate is ultimately determined to be subject to the Connecticut estate tax.

Declaration: I declare that the representations contained herein are made under the penalties of false statement. The declaration of a paid preparer other than the taxpayer is based on all information of which the preparer has any knowledge.

Form CT-706 NT EXT

Instructions

Complete this form in blue or black ink only.

When to File

Form CT-706 NT EXT, Application for Extension of Time for Filing Form CT-706 NT, must be completed and filed on or before the original due date of the Form CT-706 NT, Connecticut Estate Tax Return (for Nontaxable Estates). If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the return will be considered timely-filed if received by the next business day. The Probate Court must physically receive the application by the due date. The postmark date is not determinative of receipt by the Probate Court.

Where to File

Mail or submit Form CT-706 NT EXT to the Probate Court for the district in which the decedent was domiciled. If the decedent was not domiciled in Connecticut, submit this form to the Probate Court for the district in which Connecticut property is located. Do not mail to DRS.

Keep a copy of this form for your records.

Purpose

Use Form CT-706 NT EXT to request a six-month extension to file a Connecticut estate tax return, Form CT-706 NT, where no Connecticut estate tax is due.

For estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2020, but before January 1, 2021, no Connecticut estate tax is due from a decedent's estate if the Connecticut taxable estate is $5.1 million or less.

For estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2021, but before January 1, 2022, no Connecticut estate tax is due from a decedent's estate if the Connecticut taxable estate is $7.1 million or less.

If the Connecticut taxable estate is expected to be over $7.1 million, do not use this form. Instead, use Form CT-706/709 EXT, Application for Estate and Gift Tax Return Filing Extension and for Estate Tax Payment Extension, to request an extension from DRS. A copy must also be filed with the Probate Court.

The granting of an extension of time for filing Form CT-706 NT by the Probate Court will not avoid any interest or penalties applicable to the estate tax in the event that it is ultimately determined that the estate is subject to the Connecticut estate tax.

Failure to File Form CT-706 NT EXT

If a Form CT-706 NT EXT is not filed on or before the original due date of the Form CT-706 NT, the fees that would otherwise have been due under Conn. Gen. Stat. § 45a-107(b), shall bear interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month or portion thereof from such due date, until paid, in accordance with Conn. Gen. Stat. § 45a-107(i).

If a Form CT-706 NT EXT is filed and an extension is granted, interest will begin to accrue 30 days after the extended due date of Form CT-706 NT.

Completing Form CT-706 NT EXT

- Fill in the district of the Probate Court to which the form is to be submitted.
- Complete the name and address of decedent.
- Complete the fiduciary's name and address. If there is no fiduciary, then the person in actual or constructive possession of the property of the decedent, or the transferee of the property of the decedent, may file the form.
- Space is provided to include additional contact information for fiduciary.
- Sign the form.
- File the form on or before the due date of Form CT-706 NT with the Probate Court.
- The Probate Court will complete the section granting or denying the application for extension of time for filing Form CT-706 NT and return the form to the fiduciary unless an alternate address is indicated.
